"POLLY TICKS."

Do you know "Polly Ticks?" She's a coy, elusive and fascinating maiden of rather doubtful age, whom many love to woo. Here are the names of some of her ardent local wooers:

Judge Benjamin S. Baker, republican, has announced his candidacy for the nomination for congress. He opines that his feet will look quite neat in Charles Otto Lobeck's shoes.

George A. Magney, democrat, present county attorney, a fine man in spite of his party, has filed as a candidate for re-election. He has been a fair-minded and capable official.

J. P. Palmer, republican, an affable and capable young attorney, has filed for the nomination for county attorney. Believing that the early bird catches the worm, he was the first candidate to file in 1916.

Judge James H. Macomber, republican, hopes to secure the nomination for district judge. He is a capable lawyer, a native of Maine and served for six years on the bench in Iowa. With his antecedents and training we believe that he will be very acceptable to our people.

Bryce Crawford, county judge, republican, has filed for renomination and election.

Gentlemen, if you have a political aspiration

That will lead you to risk flirtation With "Polly Ticks," a dream and inspiration,

Do not have the slightest hesitation In taking advantage of our circulation,

To reach that portion of our population,

Which can grant you circumambulation

With this lady of your choice and station.

"As I understand it, you lecture on the subject of peace at any price."

"No. My rates are $200 per lecture."

any other object in or about its business.

To mortgage or pledge any stocks, bonds or other obligations, or any property which may be acquired by it; to secure any bonds or obligations by it issued or incurred; to guarantee any dividends or bonds or contracts or other obligations; to make and perform contracts of any kind and description; and in carrying on its business, or for the purpose of attaining or furthering any of its objects; to do any and all other acts and things and to exercise any and all other powers which a co-partnership or natural person could do or exercise and which now or hereafter may be authorized by law.

The foregoing clause shall be construed both as objects and powers, and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers of this corporation.

ARTICLE IV.

CAPITAL STOCK.

The total authorized capital stock of this corporation is twenty thousand ($20,000.00) dollars, divided into two hundred (200) shares of the par value of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each, to be fully paid at the commencement of the business of this corporation.

ARTICLE V.

COMMENCEMENT OF BUSINESS. This corporation shall begin business on the 27th day of December, 1915, and continue fifty (50) years unless dissolved by the vote of four-fifth of the capital stock of the corporation, or unless otherwise dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE VI.

INDEBTEDNESS.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject to, shall not exceed two-thirds of the paid-up and subscribed capital stock of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII.

DIRECTORS.

The directors of this corporation shall be three in number and the incorporators of this corporation shall act as directors of the same until the first annual meeting of the stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified.

ARTICLE VIII.

OFFICERS.

The officers of this corporation shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer; and the President Vice-President and Treasurer shall be members of the Board of Directors. The holding of one office by any member of the Board of Directors shall not preclude such director from holding any other office to which he may be elected by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX.
