The North Omaha Woman's Club had a splendid meeting with Mrs. Sarah Lewis, 2818 Miami street, as hostess, Friday, February 18. The arrangements for the Easter offering were about completed. The members will start to piecing quilts and sewing carpet rags as a means of raising some money.

The Rev. John Albert Williams returned Saturday afternoon from Memphis, Tenn., where he held a ten day mission in Emmanuel Episcopal Church. En route home he spent two days in Chicago visiting friends, being the house guest of the Goodchild family, formerly of Omaha. At the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning St. Philip's Church was filled by a large congregation to welcome him home, and Monday night, in honor of his birthday, parishioners and friends visited the rectory to extend congratulations and presented him with a substantial purse. Brief addresses were made by Messrs. W. G. Haynes, H. W. Black, M. F. Singleon, Dr. W. W. Peebles, Sergt. Bailey, L. H. Adams, and Mrs. T. S. Riggs.

Mrs. Esther Chatman, formerly of Dallas, Texas, but who has been making her home with her son, George W. Watson, 2716 North Twenty-eighth avenue, died at his residence Saturday morning after a protracted illness. Mrs. Chatman was 77 years of age and had been a faithful member of the Baptist Church for more than fifty years. The funeral was held from the family residence Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, her pastor, the Rev. W. F. Botts, of Zion Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery. The G. Wade Obee Undertaking Company had charge of the funeral. Mrs. Chatman is survived by her son, Geo. W. Watson, of this city; three daughters, Mrs. Bettie Jackson, Mrs. Mary Strother and Mrs. Lena Todd, all of Dallas, Texas, and who were present at the funeral; and other relatives.
