

SECURES GRAND SESSION FOR OMAHA

Mr. C. M. Johnson returned last Thursday from a pleasant trip which included Wichita, Kansas City, Atchison and Olethea, Kans. He went as a delegate to the Grand Session of the Knights and Daughters of Labor which was held in Wichita. There he had the honor of being elected for the sixteenth year Grand Presiding Prince of the order, which is an unprecedented distinction. This is largely in recognition of his efficient work as military head of the order in Nebraska and Kansas. Sir C. M. Johnson and Sir A. M. Harold, V. G. M., were successful in securing the 1917 Grand Session of the order for Omaha. This will bring a large number of knights and daughters to this city. While in Kansas City Mr. Johnson was the guest of Prof. Harry R. Graham.
