UTOPIA PLAYERS AT THE MECCA

The Utopia Stock Co., under the direction of Miss Ford and Mr. H. C. Underwood, gave their opening performance at the Mecca auditorium Sunday night, July 30. The company is composed of veteran performers and they gave their patrons a show which was well worth the money. The scenery and the five-piece orchestra under the direction of Prof. Cross added materially to the show. Miss Ethel Ural will be the headline attraction for the bill beginning next week, Aug. 6. There will also be five other stellar acts. Every member of the company has worked overtime to make each performance a success. They certainly deserve the support of the public.

FARM FOR BOYS

Birmingham, Mo., Aug. 4.—One hundred acres of farm land were donated July 21 by James D. Bufton, white, for the betterment of boys of the race, who would otherwise be sent to the reform school.

COLORED HERO AT CLEVELAND DISASTER

the work that led in his personally bringing out six men, two living and four dead, one of the survivors being Supt. Van Duzen himself.

This heroic achievement of Mr. Morgan's is a signal triumph. It not only redounds to the credit of the personal bravery of a race man but also to his inventive genius. The helmet which enabled Mr. Morgan and his party to open the way and then for a number of firemen, policemen and others to go in after them and bring out more victims, is a device of his own invention. It is known as Morgan's style two helmet, combination, smoke, gas, ammonia and sand blast protector. On the merits of this hood Mr. Morgan was awarded a gold medal at the recent international Exposition of Safety and Sanitation held in New York city.

Although the Cleveland dailies did not give credit where credit was due, Mr. Morgan stands out as the hero of the disaster and as such received the personal congratulations of the city's chief executive, Mayor Harry L. Davis.—Pittsburg Courier.

SOMETHING MORE ABOUT THE KRUTOWN PEOPLE

The people of this country who have to struggle so hard and then suffer with hunger we find that they are better off if happiness is the main thing in life. Such suffering as hunger is nil in a country so rich that its people can live off of Nature's spontaneous products.

PROGRESS AT MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Another month of history has rolled away with the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, of which Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, B. D., is pastor. The work is encouraging from all points. Regardless of the fact that the weather is very inclement, from a neat standpoint, our morning and evening services have been well attended. A juvenile choir has been organized, and sings at the morning service each Sunday, under the direction of the pastor. The number that has joined us from a membership point of view, for the month, is eight, and they are to be fellowshipped next Sunday night; of this number two are candidates for baptism, which will come off next Sunday afternoon, the 13th inst., at 2 o'clock; Brother Thos. A. Taggart of Bethel Baptist Church, will preach the sermon, who also has some for baptism. At our next report you shall hear of the improvement work that has been done on the church. Collections for the month, $146.50. The Dorcas Kensington of the Church held a bazaar in the church basement for three nights of the week ending the 28th inst, which was a fine success. A fine quilt was won by Mrs. Minnie Gains for selling the greatest number of tickets. The Sunday School had its picnic with the Zion Baptist last Thursday at Fairmount Park, and enjoyed a delightful time.—H. W. Wilkinson.
