

WEDDING BELLS

"And All Went Merry as a Wedding Bell."

SMITH-KELLOGG

Mr Alonzo Smith and Mrs. Nettie Kellogg were married Saturday night at nine o'clock at the home of the bride, 2626 North Twentysixth street, by the Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, pastor of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, of which the groom is a member. Twenty-six guests were present. Music was furnished by a string orchestra.

MADDEN-SINGLETON

Amelia Worthington, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard F. Singleton, 1428 North Twenty-second street was married to Mr. James West Madden of Chicago at the family residence Tuesday night at 8 o'clock by the Rev. John Albert Williams, vicar of the Church of St. Philip the Deason, in the presence of the family and relatives.

Just before the appointed hour Mrs. Dewey Allen sang "To All Eternity." As the song closed the groom and the priest took their places in the parlor and the bride simply and beautifully gowned entered on the arm of her father. The impressive service of the Episcopal church was then said.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, pink and white being the prevailing colors. The bride who was born and reared in Omaha was the recipient of many beautiful gifts the gift of her parents being a beautiful fumed oak dining room suite, and the gifts of the groom's parents being a chest of silver, a library table and lamp.

Mrs. J. E. Madden and Mrs. Edith Brown, mother and sister of the groom were the out-of-town guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Madden left for Chicago Thursday, where they will be at home at Sixty-third and Evans streets. Congratulations and best wishes follow them.

UNIVERSITY COMMISSION OF NEGRO EDUCATION

The second open letter to Southern college men, issued by the University Commission on the Southern Race Problem, urging them to unite their efforts with those of the "press, the pulpit, the bar, the officers of the law, and all other agencies laboring for the elimination of the monster evil of mob violence," contains the following quotation well worthy our notice.

"The inadequate provision for the education of the Negro is more than an injustice to him, it is an injury to the white man. The South cannot realize its destiny if one-third of its population is undeveloped and inefficient. For our common welfare we must strive to cure disease wherever we find it, strengthen whatever is weak, and develop all the undeveloped. The initial steps for increasing the efficiency and usefulness of the Negro race must necessarily be taken in the school room. Our appeal is for the larger share for the Negro, on the ground of the common welfare and common justice. He is the weakest link in our civilization and our welfare is indissolubly bound up with his."
