

Events and Persons

Mrs. John Saunders is seriously ill at her home, 2406 North 25th street.

Mrs. Gladys Blackwell returned to Omaha from Lincoln last Saturday. With her was her sister, Mrs. Helen Davenport, who was visiting with her.

When you want your winter clothing cleaned, call up Parker, Harney 5737, Agent for The French Way.

Please get your subscription money ready for our collector. The Monitor needs it.

"Kind Treatment," "Oh, How She Could Yacki, Hacki, Wicki, Wacki, Woo," and E. Evelyn's "Pom Pom," are among the latest popular hits in music. Buy them at Hospe.

Will N. Johnson spent a few days in Lincoln last week to recuperate from his strenuous campaign. He is pleased with the way our voters and their white friends stood by him and says that he will make another race bye and bye.

Will build you a bungalow on a large lot close to school and car line for $100 cash and $15.00 monthly. Tel Webster 5519.—Adv.

Turn out next week and see Stafford and Jones at the Gayety. They are the finest Colored dancers on the road and ace high as fun makers.

Doctor Dobson of Sioux City called up long distance to know how Will N. Johnson came out of the race, so interested was he in the result.

The Zion Baptist Church night school is a new and unique effort among our people and is being most enthusiastically taken up by many. Monday and Tuesday nights are for men, while Thursday and Friday night classes are for the women. The attendance is large and promises well.

For Chills use our $5.00 coal or your kind at Harmon & Weeth. Web. 848.

Mrs. Ethel Watkins Preston left Tuesday eve for Los Angeles, Cal., to join her husband and will reside there permanently.

Sunday is quarterly meeting at St. John A. M. E. Church. The Rev. Dr. J. C. C. Owens, P. E., will preach morning and evening.

Butternut Coffee! Did you ever hear of it? Better yet, did you ever try it?—Adv.

The Junior Stewardesses report a great financial success in their election day dinner. The ladies who so nicely manned the situation were Mesdames Eliza Turner, chairman; Myrtle Metcalf, Brown, Beatrice Napier, N. Taylor, L. Strather, E. Harper. The ladies thank all who donated to help make their quarterly report for St. John A. M. E. Church a success.

Hear Adams' Saxophone and Singing Orchestra if you want good music. Webster 1528. Holland Harrold.—Adv.

The Grant Brotherhood of St. John A. M. E. Church, entertained on Tuesday evening in honor of the K. of P. band. An elaborate program was rendered. Band Master Dan Desdunes, in response to the many cordial welcomes, told of the beginning of the band, its failures, successes and many struggles for existence and of the great appreciation of the public demonstration by the Grant Brotherhood, to assure them that the Brotherhood and St. John Church, as well, felt proud of the great fame won by the band, not only in Nebraska, but in other states as well. He assured them that this, the first demonstration of its kind ever given them, will ever be cherished by the band.

Don't forget to ask for the Advo brand at your grocer.

Mrs. Maggie Coleman of Macon, Mo., is in the city and will remain for the winter.

Mrs. Irvine Grey returned Wednesday morning from a six-weeks' visit to Chicago and Louisville, Ky.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip's church will hold their monthly social tea next Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5, at the residence of Mrs. H. J. Crawford, 2214 North Twenty-eighth avenue.

The Willing Workers of St. John A. M. E. Church is arranging an elaborate play for Thanksgiving night.

Mr. James Drasty is quite ill at 2314 North Twenty-seventh street.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McGrudor, 2719 North Twenty-seventh street, a fine bouncing boy, Sunday, November 12.

Mr. Tucker and Mrs. Annie Allen were quietly married at the parsonage Sunday afternoon, the Rev. W. T. Osborne officiated.

Have you heard of the Hu-Co and Tangier brands of eats? Look it up in the ads.

Mrs. W. T. Osborne has been confined to her bed the past eight days with a severe attack of indigestion and cold. The many friends and members have given every comfort and with the medical attention by Dr. J. H. Hutten, we look forward to seeing Mrs. Osborne at her post soon.

Mrs. W. S. Metcalf spent the week end in Sioux City, Ia., visiting relatives.

Try Madam Baker's Wonderful Hair Grower, on sale at The People's Drug Store.—Adv.

Love feast at St. John Wednesday evening was largely attended and one of the best services of its kind in years. It was a real Pentecostal meeting. One man united with the church. Rev. J. H. Nichols and some of his members from South Omaha were present.

Mrs. J. R. Harrison, who has been ill at her home, 2620 Burdette street, is slowly improving.

Dress tacky and come to the Tacky Ball at the Alamo, November 28. There will be twenty-eight entertainers to entertain you. Five prizes for the tackiest-dressed persons. The "Western Beauty Girls" will be there to make it pleasant for you.—Advertisement.

A delightful four-course luncheon was served Friday evening, Nov. 10th, at the residence of Mrs. C. R. Brushwood, 2710 Erskine street, under the auspices of Princess Oziel Chapter O. E. S. No. 69. The house was beautifully decorated in colors of the order. It was a decided success, socially and financially.

Joseph Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Taylor, 2856 Miami street, has enrolled as a student in Boyles' Business college.

The Elite Whist club met at the residence of Mrs. Augustus Hicks, Wednesday, November 8. Luncheon was served at 1:30, the remainder of the afternoon being spent at cards. The prize for the highest score was won by Mrs. Williamson.

Clothing On Credit

The easier way! Get your new Fall Suit or Dress, Man's Suit, Boy's Clothing or Children's Clothing, the Beddeo Way. Pay while you wear them.

We sell high grade clothing at cash store prices—that helps you.

We are the largest credit clothing operators in the middle west.

Beddeo

1417 DOUGLAS STREET

New Fashions

From the Markets of Whole World

FOR MILADY'S WEAR
And the Adornment of the Home.

Thompson, Belden & Co.

Established 1886

OMAHA

Burgess-Nash Company

announce their splendid readiness to supply you with every winter need—either for personal use or for the home

