

SOUTH SIDE.

(Mrs. Lulu Thornton, Correspondent)

Mrs. J. H. Nichols, who has been confined to her bed with la grippe, is slowly recovering.

Mr. P. Wright, of 2514 J street, left this week for Jacksonville, Florida, to spend the winter. We wish him a pleasant stay and hope that the trip will prove a great benefit to his health.

The Xmas trees at both Bethel Baptist and Allen Chapel were beautiful, well filled and attended. The male members of the Bethel Baptist Church presented Rev. T. Taggart with a beautiful $55.00 suit for a Xmas gift to show their appreciation for his efficient work during his stay with them.

A party of men from North and South Side spent a day hunting Xmas week in the sandhills of Nebraska. They brought back twenty rabbits. Everyone says they enjoyed the sport. Those that were with the party were Messrs. Ralph Aggie, Lloyd Gray, Sam Washington, John D. Thornton and Master Johnny Thornton.

Mr. W. Patterson left Thursday morning for his home in Kansas City, Kansas, after spending Xmas in Omaha with his two daughters, Mrs. Roxie Williams and Mrs. Alice Crittenden. This the girls enjoyed very much, being the first Xmas he spent with them for a number of years.

Mrs. Alyce Tapps, of 5628 South 33d Street, delightfully entertained Wednesday, December 27, at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of Jones and Chiles undertaking establishment.

Rev. J. C. C. Owens, of Kansas City Kansas, was in the city on Sunday and preached at the A. M. E. Church, South Omaha morning and evening.

Wednesday from 4 to 7 p. m. It was a brilliant affair.

Among the many beautiful and useful gifts received by Mrs. W. T. Osborne, and the many cards of remembrance, cut glass and hand painted china were also much in evidence. The Rev. W. T. Osborne was the recipient of many useful gifts, receiving many from the Willing Workers Christmas tree on Friday eve.

The Willing Workers met with Mrs. Alice Sherwood on Friday eve. A beautiful Christmas tree lighted with Christmas candles and decorated with the bright tree trimming was heavily laden with gifts for the members of the Club, and immediate friends. The husbands of the ladies of the Willing Workers were the invited guests. A beautiful luncheon was served and all had an enjoyable Christmas treat.

The captains of the Mite Missionary Society will be honored guests at a luncheon early in January, at which time they will discuss and complete plans for the work of their respective clubs.

CHRISTMAS AT THE N. W. C. A. HOME

Through the efforts of Mrs. J. H. Smith, chairman of the house committee, and Mrs. R. W. Freeman, the hearts of the inmates of the home were gladdened, and Xmas made bright and happy. On Sunday evening a number of association members and friends gathered at the home, where a Christmas celebration was held, consisting of appropriate services followed by short talks from the visitors, after which the presents were distributed from a beautifully decorated Xmas tree. Each inmate received a number of useful gifts. The home was also remembered with Christmas donations of provisions, jellies and fruits. Among those present were Messrs. Black, Nelson and Singleton, of the advisory board, Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Botts, Mrs. L. Gully, of Chicago, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. I. Bailey, Mrs. Kendle and Mr. M. Freeman.

On Christmas day a bountiful Xmas dinner consisting of turkey and all of its fixings, was served to the inmates. The entire dinner was provided by Mr. John H. Broomfield, for whose kindness and generosity the N. W. C. A. desires to thank him.

POLLARD ON ALL AMERICAN ELEVEN

Fritz Pollard, the sensational player on the Brown Eleven, has been selected by Walter Camp as a member of Collier's All American Eleven. The compliment which Camp pays to Pollard is that he, Pollard, is not only the best back of the present season, but the best known to history of American football.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

The Rev. W. T. Osborne, Pastor.

The sacred concert at St. John's Sunday eve, was a classic literary and musical treat. Beautiful Christmas carols were sung by the choir. Solos by Miss Pearl Ray and Mr. Perry were in keeping and well rendered. The papers by Mrs. Zenobia Diggs and Miss Venus Cropp were interesting and inspiring. "Bessie's Christmas," recited by Miss Rachel Henderson, was a real Christmas lesson and impressed the audience.

The Christmas tree on Monday night was largely attended. An excellent program was rendered by the Sunday School under the management of Mrs. Eliza Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield entertained at Christmas dinner Rev. and Mrs. Osborne and Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, of Boulder, Colo.

Mrs. Mardell Ricks Bundrant, of Minneapolis, formerly a Sunday School teacher and member of St. John's choir, is a welcome visitor among the Sunday School and Church folk, as well as her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ricks (of South 28th St., Mrs. Bundrant will remain two or three weeks and will be the honored guest at many social functions, being one of Omaha's favorite girls. Mrs. Ricks entertained in her honor on
