

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
(South Side)

The revival which has been going on for the past two weeks came to a close last Sunday evening with the addition of fifty-two members.

The pastor is well pleased with the attendance from north as well as south side people, and the way God has blessed his work.

In addition to the fifty-two, many Christians expressed the joy of being made much stronger by the special sermons preached during the services.

Rev. Mr. Taggart is planning on baptizing his candidates on Sunday, February 4th. Owing to the fact that there are too many to accommodate in the church pool, he will baptize in the Missouri river at the foot of O street, South Omaha. All will meet at the church, 29th and T streets, in the

SOUTH SIDE.

(Mrs. Lulu Thornton, Correspondent)

Household of Ruth No. 5083 held their installation of officers Wednesday eve, January 17, at the Odd Fellows' Hall. After routine business they celebrated their second anniversary with a supper. Covers were laid for about fifty members and friends. E. E. Bryant, master of ceremonies, Allen Jones, Toastmaster, Mrs. Roxie Williams, M. N. G., J. W. Louis, W. R. C.

Mr. Henry Arduna, of 5308 South 27th, was injured at Central Coal yard Monday, January 22, while at work. He was bruised quite a bit about the back and legs.

Little Mildred Williams, of 5422 No. 27th street, who has been quite sick, is much better.

Mr. R. L. Woodard, who has been down with la grippe for about two weeks, is much better and able to be out a little.

The Bethel Baptist Mission Circle met with Mrs. Webb on 30th and V streets Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Octavia Brown, who has been quite sick for some time, is said to be a little better although she is still morning and will leave immediately after morning service. They will march from the church singing as they go, down O street straight to the river banks. Sermon preached at the river. All who wish to join in the march must be at the church not later than 2 o'clock.

Messrs. Joseph Carr, Alfred Jones, Charles H. Hicks and Frank Golden and Mrs. Alphonso Wilson left Saturday night for St. Joseph, Mo., to attend the funeral of the late Dr. M. O. Ricketts, which took place from the Methodist Church, Sunday afternoon. Messrs. Carr, Jones and Golden returned Monday morning. The others later.

A Big Masquerade Carnival is scheduled for Friday, February 2, at the Mecca Roller Rink. Everybody come.—Adv.

confined to her bed.

Myrtle Fisher, of 5905 South 15th street, graduated from the 8th B to the High School Wednesday afternoon. We are glad to see our girls finishing the grade schools and hope they will continue and finish the High School as well.

Mrs. Erva Gray, who is seriously ill at her home, 17th and P streets, is reported a little better.
