ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Sunday is 25c day for the Trustee department.

Among the sick of the Church are Mesdames E. L. Jackson, Geo. Mack, Gertrude Tucker, Anna Tucker, I. A. Hughes.

St. John's Sunday School feels proud of three of their girls who graduated: Misses Cordella Johnson and Venus Cropp from Central High School and Miss Cuma Watson from Commercial High School.

Miss Corinne Thomas was one of the popular participants on program at the Social Settlement last week. So well did she render her contralto solo that she was compelled to respond to the second round of applaus.

The Tuesday Night Forum still draws large crowds. A very large appreciative audience listened to the solos that were well rendered by Mrs. Ida Baker, soprano, whose clear sweet voice held her audience spell bound and Mr. Perry who showed marked ability and training, and Rev. W. T. Osborne delighted the audience in his rendition of "Beautiful Hills." Mr. G. W. Parker, speaker of the evening, interested his hearers as he unfolded events after events of history of the race, teaching many facts that were not generally known. His address was received heartily by an enthusiastic audience.

Program for Tuesday eve, Feb. 6. Instrumental solo, Mrs. Clarence Singleton.

Soprano solo, Mrs. C. H. Hustor. Address, "Deeds and Not Words," Mr. Silas Johnson.

Mezzo soprano solo, Mrs. Walter Brown.

Literary Digest. Contralto solo, Mrs. Fingers.

This program will be a treat to the public as it will be the first appearance of each participant at St. John, and every number will prove interesting, instructive and entertaining.

Mrs. May Anna Brown, Mrs. Winifred rBadshaw, Mr. James May, Master John Lowe.

Just 50 Dozen of This Pure Thread Silk Hosiery at 79c a pair

NOT A VERY big announcement as far as quantity goes, but the best goods very often come in small parcels. If we were to go out into the market to buy them over again today, 79c would not be the selling price, of that you may be sure.

Women's Pure Thread Silk Hosiery, all new designs; fancy embroidered fronts, two-tone self embroidered as well as plain black and white and black; very effective styles.

THESE ARE THE RUN OF THE MILL, but it will take an expert in many instances to find the fault—suffice to say that in no instance is the wear effected.

A full fashioned silk to knee; high spliced soles, heels and toes, with wide garter tops.

Just 50 dozen—so PLEASE COME EARLY.
