

South Side Notes

(Mrs. Lulu Thornton, Correspondent)

The funeral of Mrs. Josephine Mitchell was held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday from Allen Chapel A. M. E. church of which she was a charter member. She was not only a charter member but a mother for her church. One who all the Christians, as well as sinners, loved and looked to for comfort and advice. She was one of those Christians that all could approach in time of trouble with the assurance of comfort from this sympathetic, smiling and ever loving face. The church has sustained a great loss. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family. She leaves a husband, four sons, five daughters, fourteen grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Rev. W. T. Osborne officiated. Interment was in Gracelawn. Jones & Chiles were in charge.

Mr. Robt. Gray of 4222 South 24th street has been sick for about a week with la grippe.

The Bethel Baptist church held their baptismal services Sunday at the Missouri river. Eighteen converts received the ordinance of baptism. On the last Sunday in this month the remaining converts will be baptised at the church, 29th and T streets.

John Ruskin Cigar, 5 cents. Biggest and Best.

Mrs. J. H. Wakefield of 4430 So. 16th street has been confined to her home this week suffering with rheumatism in her right arm.

The South Side Art Class met at the home of Mrs. J. Gibbs, 5418 So. 27th street, Wednesday afternoon. As this club plans to be a part of the Nebraska State Federation it had invited the ladies from one of the older clubs to meet with them that they might better understand the purpose of this federation. Some of the ladies accepted this invitation and were present. A very pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. Nora Gray gave quite an interesting talk on the plans and purposes of the federation and read the by-laws and constitution, which the ladies received and heartily approved. Mrs. Luella Pierson is president and Mrs. Nettie Andrews secretary.

We wish to thank the Sir Knights and Daughters of the Tabernacle and our many friends and neighbors for their kindness during our bereavement of our beloved wife and mother. Also for the beautiful floral offering.

Mr. J. R. Mitchell and Family.

Mrs. Louise Gray Holmes of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived Tuesday to spend a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Gray, and her brothers, Messrs. Robt. and Benj. Gray, of 4222 So. 24th street.

Levinia, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanfield, died at the family residence, 2410 P street, South Side, Monday, March 5th. The funeral was held Wednesday, interment being in Gracelawn Park cemetery. Jones and Chiles had charge. The Rev. Thomas A. Taggart officiated.

Mrs. Mildred Terrill of 26th and Jackson is quite sick with pneumonia.

The Bethel Baptist Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. Wigby.

Don't worry about your Sunday dinner but go over and stop at Mrs. Velma Hill's at 5310 So. 27th street, where you will be served with chicken dinner each Sunday.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Denman of 512 No. 25th street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Estella Jefferson, to Mr. W. M. J. Andrews of 5418 So. 27th street. The marriage is to take place April 5, at the home of the bride's parents. Slight but queer romance goes with this betrothed couple. Some months ago they were both featured as leading characters in a drama composed and staged by Rev. Thos. Taggart, in which Mr. Andrews was Mr. Bob and Miss Jefferson was Miss Harper, and afterward became Mrs. Bob. They little thought that Dan Cupid would be so wide awake as to make the dart so fatal.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

The Progressive club will give a prize entertainment at the church March 8. A prize will be given with every ticket. A good program will be rendered.

Some of the sick of the church are: Mr. Arthur Flannigan, Miss Lulu Baker, Mrs. Bertie Norman and Mrs. Anna Lee.

The "Last Loaf" will be given at the church March 13 under the instruction of Mrs. Anna Lee.

The Wide-Awake class will meet at the home of Mrs. Anna Lee Wednesday afternoon.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Wallace, an old member of Zion Baptist church. His remains will be brought here for burial.

The "Ladies Gym Class" exhibit was a success, the ladies proved to those present that they were real athletes. The ladies pronounced it great fun to have a public exhibit. The prize was won by Mrs. Hughes for the most somically dressed lady in the class.

A CARD OF THANKS

I desire to thank neighbors and friends for their kindness to me and mine during the illness and death of my husband. I appreciate, too, the unfailing attention and help of the members of Rough Ashler Lodge of which my husband was a member. In this expression of gratitude my sister, Mrs. Riddle, joins.

Mrs. Howard L. Livingston. March 7, 1917.

We thank the many friends who so kindly helped us bear the bereavement of our beloved sister, Mrs. Mamie Jewell Greenlee, and also for the beautiful floral offerings.
