

THE LINCOLN ANNUAL CONFERENCE TO MEET

Education. The speakers will be Dr. I. Garland Penn, secretary of the Freedmen's Aid, one of the best known and ablest laymen in the denomination; the Rev. Dr. M. W. Dogan, president of Wiley University, Marshall, Texas, and Professor Hayes, president of George R. Smith College, Sedalia, Mo.

On Thursday, March 29, devotional exercises at 8 a. m. will be conducted by the Rev. Messrs. D. Smith, Albert Haynes, A. Falkner and C. W. Holmes, former pastors of the mission, which has now become Grove Church. The conference sermon will be preached at 9 o'clock by the Rev. C. N. Dawson, pastor of Dietz Memorial, followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper at 9:45, after which organization and routine business will occupy the conference. At 3:30 p. m. the work of the Sunday School Board and that of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society will be considered. The Rev. Dr. McConnell, of Chicago, Secretary of the Sunday School Board, and others will be the speakers. At 8 o'clock there will be a general reception to the annual conference, with addresses by Mayor J. C. Dahlman, Bishop Stuntz, The Rev. Dr. R. E. Jones, The Rev. M. H. Wilkinson and Mr. S. L. Patton.

Friday morning's session will begin with a devotional service at 8 o'clock, led by the Rev. Messrs. W. H. Hamilton and A. G. Thompson. Routine business will follow until 11 o'clock, at which hour such live topics as "Revival and Revival Methods," "The Southern Exodus and Its Meaning," and "Our Business and Professional Men and Their Attitude Toward the Church" will be discussed. At 11:30 the discussion will be interrupted to receive the Methodist Ministers' Union of the city and the business and professional men. In the evening Bishop Stuntz will lecture on "The Two Americas" for the benefit of the Church. Bishop Stuntz spent several years in Central America and is the author of a standard work on that country. His lecture will therefore be most instructive.

The sessions of Saturday will begin at 8 a. m.; at 11:00 the pastors of the respective Colored congregations, with representatives, have been invited to attend and the Rev. John Albert Williams, vicar of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, has accepted the invitation to make an address. At 3:30 in the afternoon the George R. Smith College, the American Bible Society and the Epworth League will have the attention of the conference. Saturday night at 8, the Rev. Dr. Smith of Washington, D. C., and the Rev. Dr. Sherrill, of Atlanta, will be the principal speakers on "Temperance" and "Foreign Missions." Mr. S. J. Groves will preside.

Sunday, April 1, will begin with the service of "Love Feast," at 9:30 conducted by the Rev. Messrs. N. J. Johnson, T. S. Morris and A. R. Morris. At 11 there will be an ordination of elders and deacons and sermon by Bishop Stuntz. At 3 p. m. Home Missions will be considered by the Rev. Dr. Dean of Philadelphia. A 4 p. m. there will be a financial rally conducted by Bishop Stuntz and the Rev. U. G. Brown, and at 8 p. m., the Rev. Dr. R. E. Jones will preach. Announcement of appointments will be made Monday night.
