Our Women and Children

ONCE-OVERS.

Suppose You Don't Find Your Wife At Home Tonight?

Old man, when you are out with the gang you frequently say that you have "the best little wife in the world."

You are in luck.

She is far too good a woman for

Say, why don't you brace up and try to be worthy of her—of the sort of love, sacrificing love, which she gives you, and which must be particularly strong or she would not stick to a selfish old pill of your present speed.

When did you ever put her comfort before yours?

When did you ever give up some entertainment that she might go out and enjoy herself in the way she liked best?

Did you ever think that maybe she won't always be "the best little wife in the world" to you?

Some night when she is waiting for you to come home, she may resolve to quit, because she may feel that you have so many others to consider before you give her any thought, that her going will not trouble you much and will enable her to get more out of her own life.

What could she do alone? Certainly could earn her board and keep—that is all you give her.

A woman loves and needs companionship. Would she miss any if she left you tonight?—Exchange.

A LIVELYGAME

Marble time is here at last, Merry times for you; Even March and April clouds Play at marbles, too.

First they take some drops of rain, Green and red and blue,

Where the dancing sunbeams send Sparkles through and through. Then they hang them in the sky Where the winds that blow

Freeze them hard and smooth and round,

And as cold as snow.

Then they roll them through the air
To the earth below;

And the little children ask,

"How do hailstones grow?"

—Ex.

A FEW BEAUTY HINTS

Here are some practical suggestions that will make any face beautiful:

Learn to think; develop your intelligence. An empty head can hardly produce or maintain real beauty of the face.

Keep smiling; keep cheerful. Compel the light of gladness on your face to make up for any lack on nature's part.

Be thoroughly, genuinely unselfish. Don't think about how you look, but about what you can do to make other people happy.

Cultivate health. Do lots of work and take plenty of exercise. Live all you can in the open air. Use water generously inside and out.

Forget all about your desire to be beautiful. Get enthusiastic about trying to bring gladness to others. And then if you could hear what other people are saying about you when you are not near, you would find that they think you have found real beauty.—The Christian Herald.

The Needle Craft Art Club will meet at the parsonage Friday afternoon, April 13.

N. W. C. A. NOTES

The N. W. C. A. held an interesting meeting at the home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Pennie Harris, one of the inmates, continues ill.

Mrs. Amanda Scott has been admitted into the home during the past week.

The board of directors, together with the advisory board, held an important meeting at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Alphonso Wilson, last week. Mr. E. F. Dennison, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was present and made some very helpful suggestions to the board.

Mrs. Susie Perry is rehearsing a number of our talented young people for a clever play to be given soon for the benefit of the home.

During the past month the N. W. C. A. has donated $5 to Mrs. G. W. Ahlquist toward the burial of David Erooks, given temporary shelter to a destitute woman and provisions to a needy family.

Owing to a scarcity of rugs in the home the members will bring carpet rags to sew at the next meeting, April 18. A prize will be given the one sewing the most during the afternoon. All members are requested to be present.

NATIONAL CHARACTERS

AT ZION CHURCH

Two nationally known men will appear at the Zion Baptist Church for the next two weeks. The first, W. M. Lewis, is the great gospel singer, and Dr. T. K. Williams, of Chicago, the second, is famed for his opwer as a pulpit orator. The public is cordially invited.
