Wednesday evening Miss Zola Bedell entertained forty-five members of the younger set including the Misses Brown, Miss Scott and Messrs. Laird, all students of the University Place High School. Both enclosed porch and the house were beautifully decorated in Easter colors, quantities of flowers being used. The evening was most enjoyably spent in games and music. Pink and white ices accompanied by pink and white cakes were served. The young people were chaperoned by Mesdames Bedell, White, Lyons and Hunter.

Mrs. Louis Holmes and her small daughter, Maxine, spent the week end visiting relatives in Clay Center, Kansas.

The Optimistic Set met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Al Taylor, 1124 South 10th street. The meeting was opened by the recitation of the Lord's Prayer, the roll was responded to by gems from childhood. The domestic science department having charge of the meeting, the chairman demonstrated an economy cake. Mrs. W. M. Jenquenz aid Mrs. George Wiley were the invited guests.

We regret to report that little Monroe Williams has contracted measles. His sister, Alma, though is quite well again.

Mr. Will Johnson, of Omaha, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of 2010 South 14th St. Mt. Zion Baptist Sunday school will entertain the youngsters Easter Monday evening. Hunting for the two nests of Easter eggs hidden in the church will be the special feature.

Mr. George W. Sellers, 1942 U street, suffered a paralytic stroke Tuesday morning at four o'clock and is in a very critical condition.

Mr. Harrison Miller is much improved from his recent illness and is able to be out again.

Rev. Tiger, formerly pastor of the A. M. E. church, is visiting in the city. He is on his way to take a new charge in Emporia, Kansas.

Mrs. Ida Todd gave a surprise party Saturday at her home in honor of her son, William.

Gideon Band was entertained by Mrs. Pattrine Gratton on Thursday evening.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday was delightfully spent, morning and night. Two more were added to the list of members. We were over-run with convenience to commune all present. The church is going to secure another communion set of forty glasses.

Easter sermon will be preached Sunday morning, after which baptismal service will be observed. At night a grand Easter program will be rendered, under the leadership of Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson and assistant.

The Dorcas Kensington will meet Thursday, the 12th, with Mrs. G. W. Hibbler at the Rowland apartments.

The Silver Leaf met with Mrs. C. Falls last Friday night and had a delightful session.

In order to do honor to the pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson, for the year that they have been with us and the good work accomplished, the church will put itself on record by celebrating their anniversary with a reception and banquet Thursday night, the 19th of April, 1917, at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to join us. Banquet, 50 cents per plate. Mr. G. W. Hibbler, general manager. Phone W. 5086.
