A DECIDED ACQUISITION

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pinkston after an absence of eight years, have returned to take up their residence in Omaha. Mrs. Pinkston is pleasantly and favorably remembered here as Miss Florentine F. Cassells, daughter of Mrs. H. J. Crawford. Miss Cassells being talented in music, soon after her marriage, her husband, with most commendable determination, decided that she should have every advantage, to cultivate her talent. They therefore went to Boston, and Miss Pinkston entered the New England Conservatory where she put in five years of diligent study, graduating last year with distinction in pianoforte under Alfred De Voto. She was induced to open a studio in Harrisburg, Pa. where she has been teaching successfully for several months. Mr. and Mrs. Pinkston finally decided to return to Omaha, where Mrs. Pinkston will teach. They will reside at 2214 North 28th St. Mrs. Pinkston is a decided acquisition to the musical circles of our city.

BOY SCOUT NEWS Troop 23.

A Scout can talk to a brother Scout without making a sound. By signaling with flags, or by tapping on a log he can imitate the click of a telegraph key and in either manner can spell out words, and sentences. A Scout is kind to everything that lives. He knows that horses, dogs and cats have their rights, and he respects them. A Scout prides himself upon doing kind deeds and no day is complete unless he has been of aid to some person.

The report of Troop 23 on covering the territory assigned them in the Omaha cleanup campaign was O. K.

We have had the pleasure of attending several Scout masters meetings at council headquarters and were pleased with the spirit of courtesy that prevailed.

Our trip through the U. P. Shops last week was very interesting and enjoyed by all the boys.

Law 4. A Scout is friendly. He is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout.
