

FUNERAL OF THE LATE SIDNEY ALLEN

The funeral of the Rev. Sidney Allen was held from St. John's A. M. E. Church with which he had been identified for more than forty years, Monday afternoon, May 28. At the time of his death he was eighty-four years of age. He was a local preacher of the Methodist Church and a godly and kind-hearted man, beloved by all who knew him. The Rev. W. T. Osborne officiated, being assisted by the Rev. J. C. C. Owens, presiding elder, and the Rev. W. F. Botts, pastor of Zion Baptist Church.

Excelsior Lodge A. F. and A. M., T. P. Mahammitt, W. M., had charge of the remains and conducted the ritual of their order after the church services and at the grave.

The Star of Bethlehem, No. 56, O. E. S., of which he was the patron, also participated in the services. Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery and the Western Undertaking company had charge of the funeral. "Father" Allen, as he was affectionately called, is survived by his widow.

LABOR NOTES

Letters from two firms have been received this week, one wanting 1,000 men or more, and the other wanting one hundred. The wages, however, are not quite up to the standard, and an effort will be made to get at least 25 cents per hour.

The American Smelting and Refining Company has contracted with The Monitor for 100 men to be brought to Omaha in the next thirty days.

The Cudahy Packing Company of Omaha is sending the cash for fares to laborers in Florida whom the state refuses to let leave on wired tickets and prepaid orders.

The Monitor has submitted a bid to bring 100 laborers north for a government contract in Illinois.

Letters are coming to The Monitor from many places in the west asking for Colored men and families for ranches. The same are being supplied.

Twenty-five men will reach Omaha this week from the south. The fares of all have been advanced. Arrangements for room and board have all been made.

Call the Number Yourself, Always

It is common courtesy and good business practice to call the telephone number yourself on a local call, always.

A business man answering his telephone doesn't like to be told by your clerk or private exchange operator to "wait a minute" until you are ready to talk.

If anybody is to be kept waiting it should be the person making the call.

However, if you insist on having your office girl get another person on the line for you, she should say, for example, to the person called: "Mr. John Smith wishes to speak to you; please hold the line?"

To be told "wait a minute," we have found, is irritating to most people.
