

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

Mr. Roy Foutz left Monday to attend the District Conference and Sunday School Convention which convenes in Kansas City, Kan.

All lovers of music who desire to take part in the big chorus, "David, the Shepherd Boy," will meet with Prof Ben Stanley at St. John Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Because of the great increase of musical talent and the interest being demonstrated, this will be the largest and best musical production we have yet undertaken, and with the thorough training by Prof. Stanley, it will be a musical event that will go down in history for the lovers of music in Omaha. The rehearsing will not begin Sunday afternoon, that is only a "get together" meeting. The rehearsals will be in the evenings. Those who can't be present Sunday call Douglas 5914 for the rehearsal evenings. Prof. Stanley, however, desires to meet all who can be present.

Little Ida Crockett, of 210 South 28th avenue, won the gold medal at Farnam School for the best essay on "Tobacco." Ida is only ten years old, and lives with her widowed mother. She is a pupil of St. John Sunday School.

Monday evening, June 25, there will be a public church social with all the new members as honored guests. Every member and friend is cordially invited to meet the new members and strangers. Come and get acquainted.

Clyde LeRoy Glass, a graduate from the Des Moines Conservatory, with high honor, and a student in the Boston Conservatory of Music, will arrive in Omaha July 4, to assist J. Andrew Singleton in a recital on July 6 at St. John's. Mr. Glass' wonderful technique and interpretation has stamped him as the coming pianist of the race. He will play several selections, giving to the audience the benefit of two recitals in one, for the one price.

LABOR NOTES

So much trouble has been experienced in getting people out of Florida that an effort will be made to have applicants get to Mobile and from there secure transportation.

Mr. Hutter, Labor Supervisor of the Minnesota Steel Mills, was in Omaha Monday of this week to talk over the possibilities of securing men for his plant. The wages have been raised to 20 cents an hour with an optional two hours, making it $3.80 per day. About 150 men are wanted.

One thing The Monitor must insist upon, when men say they are ready to leave, let them BE READY. Holding up transportation is simply holding up other good men who want to get away. If you are not ready to leave at once, don't say that you are. Let the other man have his chance.

Because of the local strike the packing houses have been temporarily filled.

The American Smelting and Refining Company intends to use a large number of Colored men and to gradually supplant certain classes of foreign labor with them.

It has been reported to The Monitor that an effort is being made to flood St. Louis with Colored labor and thus lower the wage scale. Men leaving had better avoid that city.

Several instances have been brought to our notice of southern Colored women doing domestic work at 10 cents per hour. The woman's day wages here for domestic work is $2.10 and everyone knowing women who work and have just come here should acquaint them with that fact.

The selective draft will create a new demand for labor and much of the new labor will have to be Colored labor.
