LECTURES AT ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Elder James W. Webb, of Chicago, Ill., who is on a western lecturing tour, gave his instructive and entertaining illustrated lecture, "The Black Man's Part in the Bible," at Zion Baptist Church last Tuesday evening to a capacity house. He came under the auspices of Faithful Lodge

U. B. F., of which Earl Jones is Worthy Master, and the management, as well as the audience were well pleased with the lecture. Elder Webb maintains and the pictures exhibited are presented to prove his thesis that Solomon, the Queen of Sheba and other biblical characters were black men and that African blood is traceable in the ancestry of the Virgin Mary of whom the Saviour of mankind was born.

A UNIQUE AND DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT AT MECCA

The large audience which filled the Mecca last Wednesday night was given a rare treat in the delightful entertainment staged under the expert training and efficient management of Mrs. Henry Buford. For two months Mrs. Buford had had under training several children, and for a shorter period, some adults, in fancy dancing. As a result of her painstaking work an Omaha audience was delighted with an entertainment, the first of its kind to be staged by our people in this city. There were ensemble dances, solo dances, duet dances of various kinds in which "the poetry of motion" was exhibited in its most attractive form. The children made a beautiful picture.

The program opened with the dance of the nuphs, given by eight children. Grace Dorsey, Elaine Smith and Hortense Johnson, three little tots, gave the skirt dance; Martha Russell and Flora McCree gave the Spanish dances; Clarence Gordon and Miss Beatrice Brown danced the gavotte, the sisters, Beatrice Elaine and Pauline Black, danced Black Eyed Susan; Dorothy Williams danced the Pavalov gavotte. The Misses Marion Gordon and Beatrice Majors received an ovation for their artistic execution of the Hula hula dance, the native Hawaiian dance. The program was closed by a patriotic dance by Gladys Brown and Grace Dorsey, dressed as "America," surrounded by children holding American flags. Mrs. Threasa Lawrie and Miss Darlean Duval contributed two appreciated vocal numbers to the program. Miss Otis Watson was the pianist. The audience showed appreciation by enthusiastic applause.

After the program the evening was spent in dancing to the music of Desdunes orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanger will entertain at dinner on tomorrow, Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Osborne and Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Botts.
