A LETTER OF THANKS

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 8, 1917. Mr. George Wells Parker, Omaha, Nebraska.

Dear Sir—I want to thank you so much for sending the body of my husband home to me. I feel that I can not thank you enough. But I am so sorry that he had to go so far away from home to die, yet God knows best and I believe in Him. Still it is hard for me to bear. Sylvester was my sole and only support and I had expected to leave for Omaha the day I received the telegram that he was dead. I also want to thank the undertaker for taking such good care of his body, because his flesh was so soft and life-like that it didn't seem he was dead. Please write me how he died and what were his last words, if you can find them out.

Truly yours,
Mrs. Rose Lee Keyser,
618 West Zarragossa Street.
