

Lincoln Department

Anita M. Taylor, Call L9810 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Tuesday evening the citizens of Lincoln tendered the conscripted Colored soldiers who leave for training camps the 15th of October, a reception at the Baptist church. After an excellent program, refreshments were served to the large crowd gathered to bid "good-bye" to these embryo soldiers. Those leaving at this time are Messrs. Walter Muckleroy, James H. Coleman, John Wray, Jasper Brown and Odie Harding.

Mr. Earl Shackelford, one of our university students, is on the sick list.

Mrs. B. Hale and her daughter, Mrs. Edna Ford, of Kansas City, Kansas, who were in Lincoln to attend the funeral of Mr. Edward Hale, left Monday morning for their home.

The stork called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, 622 South 20th street, Monday night and left a lovely baby girl.

Rev. B. Hillman was called out of the city by business during last week. Rev. J. B. Smith very ably took his place Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Roy of University Place, has been very ill, but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garman, of Omaha, returned to their home Wednesday evening. They were here for the funeral of Edward Hale.

"The Come to Sunday School" rally is meeting with great success at Mt. Zion Baptist church. Classes No. 4 and 7, composed of girls, gave a splendid program a week ago Sunday and last Sunday Class No. 5, boys, had charge of services. Sunday, Oct. 21st, the ladies' classes Nos. 1 and 2 will contribute their part to make the rally an entire success.

Mrs. Clemmens of South Twentieth street has as her guest her daughter, Mrs. Riley, of St. Paul, Minn.

The Optimistic Set held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl McWilliams on Thursday last. After a lively business meeting the hostess served a very dainty luncheon. A special call meeting of the club was held Sunday afternoon at Mrs. Wyatt Williams'. Invitations were sent out for a Halloween party October 31st at Masonic Hall.

Gideon Band was delightfully entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Lulu B. Moore, 2226 O street.

DOG, A MOVIE FAN

(Special to The Monitor, by Fred C. Williams.)

It is often times said that the traveler sees and hears strange things, so it is good to travel. As you cannot very conveniently leave home, follow me through the pages of the Monitor and I will describe the things to you I have seen and heard.

St. Joe, Mo., proudly boasts of the possession of a dog who is a moving picture fan. He is the property of James, the little seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Saunders, 214 Francis street, and the grandson of Charles Phelps, the owner of the Dudley theatre, where Speck, that is the dog's name, and his little master are seen nightly. Speck has taken possession of a seat in the back row on the aisle which he claims as his own and if some stranger happens to stop there and occupy the same before Speck arrives, he runs up and down the aisle barking loudly until some of the attendants come to his rescue and secures him his usual seat. He enjoys the pictures as well almost as a person, showing his pleasure or disapproval by the tone or manner of his bark. When a dog appears in the picture Speck usually barks loudly and seemingly with joy. When the scene depicts shooting or a rough and tumble fight Speck growls his disapproval. Love scenes seem to please him most, and when two people are seen cuddling close and kissing Speck gives vent to a pleasing whine, and people who have watched him closely, say they have seen him wink and nod his head in a knowing manner.
