JOHN L. KENNEDY IS MADE STATE FUEL ADMINISTRATOR

John L. Kennedy, lawyer and financier of Omaha, has been appointed Fuel Administrator of Nebraska. His acceptance followed a telegram from Fuel Commissioner Garfield.

In his acceptance Mr. Kennedy pointedly stated that he would discharge his duties without fear or favor. "Whether it pleases every one is of little consequence. I will do my duty at this time, because it is every American's duty to serve his country" said the newly appointed administrator.

"The problem before me is to get coal into this state in sufficient quantities to supply Nebraska's needs. If the Government gets it into the state, I will see that it is fairly and equitably distributed."

"I'm severing my connection with the Liberty Loan campaign so that I can give my full time and attention to the fuel work."

With the closing speech at Norfolk last Saturday, Mr. Kennedy said goodbye to his co-workers on the Liberty Loan and assumed active direction of the fuel problems.

LEAVENWORTH, KANS.

At Bethel A. M. E. Church Wednesday evening one of the most inspiring meetings in the history of Leavenworth was held, which called forth over a thousand persons to this meeting.

It was to give to the forty-four young men who were drafted and who will entrain Saturday for Camp Funston, words of encouragement and wish them Godspeed.

Sixty-five dollars was raised in fifteen minutes to equip them with blankets. A banquet was served on the first floor free to all present.

Last, but not least, we owe it all to Rev. A. J. Sanders, who was the prime mover and whose untiring efforts made it a success. We were fortunate in having among our own race one man who, I might say, is the backbone of the American army, in that he has coached more men in all branches of the service who has successfully passed for officers, than any other one man. And who is he? Prof. B. K. Bruce. Needless to add that his address was an inspiration to everyone present.

Excellent speeches were made by Attorney D. A. Jones, S. T. Jones (who was an officer in the Spanish-American war), Attorney T. W. Bell, Dr. S. N. Jackson, and Congressman D. R. Anthony, Jr.

The impression made on the audience was, that we are Americans because we have fought and paid for it with our blood from Crispus Attucks down to Carrizal.

VISITS POINTS IN KANSAS

To the Readers of The Monitor: Keeping you in touch with my movements: I left Kansas City on Wednesday for Excelsior Springs, Mo. Arrived after a pleasant hour's ride over the Interurban and located the Albany Hotel, where my old friend, Hugh White, holds forth. Found it to be the meeting place of the most prominent members of the race. Succeeded in getting some business and made any number of new friends for the paper. Had dinner with Hugh and returned that same evening, left the following morning, Thursday, for Lawrence, Kansas, well pleased with my visit and the reception accorded me. Lawrence entertained me in the social manner that well becomes a high brow community, and gave me some business also. Back in Kansas City, Kansas, Friday and Saturday. Worked hard; no results. Spent Sunday in Kansas City, Mo., left for Leavenworth Monday morning. Until next week.

Correspondingly yours, FRED C. WILLIAMS. Traveling representative of The Monitor.

TWO NEW BUSINESS VENTURES

Two well known Colored men have started new business ventures this week. Mr. Frank Douglas, well known Union Pacific veteran, better known as "Doug," as opened a shining parlor at 2414 North 24th street. Doug is an all around good fellow and the prediction is that his corner will become the north end mecca. He will also have several whist tables and have on sale the leading Colored newspapers.

Mr. Al Jones has opened a restaurant at 24th and Hamilton. Such a business is always a necessary thing and Mr. Jones' well known ability along culinary lines promises well. We trust that both ventures will grow and develop.
