

South Side Notes

Mrs. Sara Severe had a fall last week and was quite sick, but is much better now.

Don't forget the mid-winter carnival to be held at Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church Thursday and Friday, December 27 and 28. The ladies have prepared many useful articles to be sold, also a good supply for the first evening and a program for the last evening.

J. H. Wakefield, Manager So. Side Branch of Obie-Hunter Undertaking Co.—See ad.

Mrs. George Johnson, of 6618 South 27th street, who was thought to be improving last week, is very seriously ill. Her mother and father have again been called from South Dakota. She is now at the home of Mrs. Bessie Johnson, 28th and Drexel street.

The Bethel Baptist Mission will hold a three days' bazaar beginning Xmas day at 30th and U streets. On Xmas day they have prepared an Xmas dinner to which they solicit the patronage of all. During Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the Mission will sell articles of clothing.

Little Miss Sylvia Gray, of 1211 Missouri avenue, the daughter of Mrs. Frank Gray, is quite sick at her home, threatened with pneumonia.

Don't forget the Xmas tree Monday night at Allen Chapel A. M. E. church. The senior stewards will serve chitterlings, fish and cream.—Mrs. L. Pegram, President.

ATCHISON, KANSAS

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Taylor announce the marriage of their daughter Gertrude to Mr. Lemuel Brown of St. Joseph, December 24.

Mrs. Matilda Allen, one of Atchison's highly respected citizens, died Sunday at 4 a. m. at the residence of her granddaughter, Mrs. George Kerford, 929 South Fourth street, after an illness lasting a year. She is survived by one daughter, Esther Smith of Topeka; five grandchildren, William and Hazel Smith of Atchison, Ruth of Omaha, Mrs. Pearl Williams of St. Joseph and Mrs. George Kerford. Funeral services will be held at the A. M. E. church Tuesday at 2 p. m., Rev. Billous officiating. Interment at Mount Vernon cemetery.

Mr. Tony Taylor returned from Excelsior Springs Sunday much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill are the proud parents of a fine baby girl. Mother and baby doing well.

Dr. D. H. Steward of Garden City, Kan., has moved to Atchison and has taken the place of Dr. Caldwell, who a short time ago moved to Kansas City, Mo. We wish Dr. Steward much success.

A. Brown of Oak Mills was called to Des Moines, Ia., on account of the death of his wife, who had gone there for her health. She suffered a paralytic stroke.

William Henderson is in St. Joseph working at the packing house.

Louie Letcher is home sick.

Miss Ruby Morton, teacher in the public schools, took several of her pupils with her to Topeka, visiting government buildings, looking up Kansas history. She and children report a good time.

ST. PHILIP'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Instead of the three customary services on Christmas day, it has been decided to have only one service on Christmas day this year and that will be at 9 o'clock Christmas morning. All members of the congregation are urged to attend this service and the public is cordially invited.

The Sunday school children will not receive the usual Christmas gifts this year. There will be a Christmas tree, upon which the children will place small gifts of money, which will be sent to help save the lives of little children who are starving in Armenia, Syria and other Bible lands.

Despite the severe weather the sale held by the Women's auxiliary in the guild rooms Thursday was a decided success. They will hold their usual birthday party New Year's day.

NEWS OF MOUNT MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

The pastor, the Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, returned Friday from El Paso, Tex., where he conducted a successful revival.

The usual Sunday service will be held. Morning sermon topic, "The Saving Name." Evening, "Devil Fighters." The Sunday school Christmas tree will be held Monday night. The parents and public are invited to put presents on the tree.

Lincoln Department

Mrs. B. Hawkins is seriously ill at her home, having suffered two paralytic strokes the latter part of last week.

Mr. A. F. Bures was called to his home in Hannibal, Mo., Saturday evening by a telegram announcing the death of his father.

Rev. B. Hillman has been confined to his home by illness during the past week.

There will be a grand "Christmas Cabin" at the Baptist church Christmas eve, Monday, December 24, at 8 o'clock. Special musical and literary program by the Sunday school pupils. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. L. C. Washington has been on the sick list this week.

The three lectures given in Lincoln by Rev. Charles Stewart of Louisiana made lasting impressions for good. In a most scholarly way he drove home his facts as to the advantages of a pure life.

The Mission Circle of Mount Zion Baptist church are making a great effort to have the church wired for electric lights. Any help will be appreciated.

The Optimistic Set met Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Al Taylor and packed and arranged for shipping a large Christmas box for the boys at Camp Funston. The club will meet Friday, December 28, with the president, Mrs. Monroe Williams, 2039 M street.

Mrs. Bell Johnson returned home Saturday after a visit with her mother in St. Joseph, Mo.

Lebanon lodge will hold its annual St. John's day banquet at Masonic temple December 27.

Gideon Band will receive callers New Year's day at Mount Zion Baptist church. In the evening there will be an "Old Folks' Concert" and the young ladies will present a playlet, "The Crowning of the Queen."

Mrs. E. J. Griffen will spend the holidays in Memphis, Tenn., visiting with her mother, who will return to Lincoln with her.

The patriotic drill and musical given by St. Anne's tabernacle last Wednesday was a great success in every way.

The L. L. S. Kensington club was beautifully entertained by Mrs. Abner, 820 F street. A collection of $5 was taken up among the members to be sent to Omaha for the Smith defense fund. They also shipped a box of Christmas gifts for the soldiers at Camp Funston. Friday the annual Christmas tree party for members will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. James Dean. The regular fortnightly meeting will be with Mrs. Charles Haynes, 2117 South Tenth street.

Mr. Gus Harding is reported quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray of Minneapolis, Minn., are in the city, having been called here by the illness of Mrs. Murray's mother, Mrs. Hawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cowden and daughter Christine of Kansas City are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christman. Mr. Christman, who has been very ill for some time, is somewhat improved.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Good crowds attended both morning and evening services last Sunday, and all who were absent Sunday night indeed missed a treat, for Pastor Botts was at his best.

The B. Y. P. U. held its annual election of officers Sunday evening and for another year will be under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Odessa Harris. Her re-election for the fourth time proves that her untiring efforts have not been in vain.

"The Fruit of His Folly," given Monday night, under the auspices of the Wide-Awake Twenty-Four, was a grand success. We thank you for your patronage.

The Mission Circle met this week with Mrs. Flanagan on North Twenty-eighth avenue.

If Mr. John Stout will call Webster 5128 he will receive a message from his mother, who is in distress at Springfield, Ill.

Our services are worth attending. Visitors are invited to worship with us.
