

South Side Notes

Mrs. E. Wiggins is still on the sick list, although much improved. Mr. Richard Moderson of Thirty-second and U street died Wednesday morning at his home of pneumonia. He and his family are strangers from Mississippi. He leaves a wife and a daughter. Jones & Chiles have charge of the body.

Mrs. R. Hilton's brother, who came here about a week ago from Chicago, has decided to make this his home at least for a time.

Baby Alston, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Alston, is quite sick at their home, 2627 Jefferson street.

Mrs. Birdie Lollis, who again underwent a slight operation for her arm, is doing nicely. She is able to be out again.

The family of Mr. J. A. McGough, who have been quarantined with smallpox, discovered the house on fire Thursday from a defective chimney and were badly frightened, but the firemen soon put the fire out.

The Allen chapel, A. M. E. Aid society, was entertained very nicely by Mrs. S. Stapleton at her home. The Aid will be entertained this week by Mrs. Severe at 4421 South Twenty-sixth street.

Quite a number from South Side attended the quarterly meeting at St. John's A. M. E. church last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Nathaniel Mitchell, who has been down with the rheumatism for about two months, is able to be out a little.

Mrs. Bessie Johnson is getting along as well as could be expected. She is still at the hospital.

Mrs. M. Davis of Thirty-second and U street is sick. It is thought she has lung trouble.

The patriotic party given by the younger set of South Side at A. O. U. W. temple last Thursday night was well attended and a well spent evening for the girls and boys. The evening was spent in games and dancing. Ice cream, dainty cakes and chocolate was abundantly served. Those present were: Misses Beatrice McGowan, Mattie Hendricks, Willie Hendricks, Messrs. Frank Moore, Robert Green, Louis Grant, Pressly Gambol, Clyde Cochran, Willie Wright, Oscar Hawkins, Otto Clark of North Side, Misses Iler, Myers, Myrtle Fisher, Corasia Broomfield, Gerilda Tucker, Frankie Jackson, Louise Johnson, Messrs. John Widby, James Gray, Virgil Davis, Frank Tucker, Leroy Broomfield and Eugene Reed.

Lincoln Department

The Colored Girls' Patriotic club's valentine party was very successful. The clubrooms were decked in gay colors to suit the occasion. After the games and roller skating a dainty lunch was served.

Sunday, March 3, is set aside for women's day. There will be a big rally at the A. M. E. church. Programs will be rendered during afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Sarah Walker has been quite ill for the last week, but she is improving.

Mrs. Jasper Wright has been on the sick list for the last week and is still a little indisposed.

Eugene Nichols has been elected captain of the literary society, which is a white society, in Lincoln High school. The duty of the captain is to direct all literary work.

Mrs. Henry Crews has returned from Junction City, Kan. She spent some time at Camp Funston and reports things as pretty lively there. Mr. Richard Williams has returned to Sedalia, Mo., where he will stay indefinitely.

The body of the late Mr. George Miller is expected to arrive in Lincoln about the 1st of March for burial.

Young's Pantorium, which has been formerly located at 219 North 9th St., will now be found at 219 North 10th St. Phone L 7664. Order your Easter suits now. Eliminate so-called war prices.

The D. M. S. met with Mr. Sanford Falling last Friday, February 23. Several new officers were elected. President, Sanford Falling; vice president, Viola Walker; sergeant-at-arms, Reuben Murray. The other officers were not changed.

The A. M. E. church has started a movement in preparation for an Easter cantata, which was a grand success last year.

Lieutenant Victor Hicks of Camp Funston was the guest of Miss Dorothy Flippen. Lieutenant Hicks reports things are going fine with him at camp.

Charlie Jones and Jasper Brown were up from Funston last week.

Mr. I. B. Colby and Mr. John Galbreath are opening a cafeteria and soda fountain on North Tenth street. They will be open for business about March 15.

Corporal Frank H. Burden was down from Camp Funston Sunday to visit his sisters and brothers. He also spent a few hours in Crete with Judge Hastings and other friends, and also a few hours in Wilbur with friends. All welcomed him as a defender of democracy. Mr. Burden was given an excellent boost in the white paper, which gave many good elements of his character.

ATCHISON, KANSAS

Mrs. Mary Moore, widow of the late Henry Moore, who died two weeks ago, died Monday morning at 6 o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Will Kelly, 1011 Spring street. She had been ill for several months. Her death is mourned by all who knew her. She is survived by one daughter and two sons. Funeral Wednesday, 2:30 p. m., at Ebenezer Baptist church, under the auspices of the Daughters of the Tabernacle, Rev. W. H. Hill officiating.

A good crowd gathered at Port William district school house last Friday in a patriotic mass meeting. H. C. Buchanan, veteran of the civil war, told how easy they could have whipped the Germans in those days. G. H. Ross told how easy the Indians were gotten rid of. Gene Bell spoke of present conditions. Charles Ferguson pleaded for patriotism. J. D. Saunders urged all to buy thrift stamps. Miss V. Saunders, district teacher, served refreshments after the program.

The Utopian Art club will meet with Mrs. J. D. Colbert next week.

J. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. S. Reynolds, all members of the jazz band of St. Joseph, were the guests of William Cornell Sunday.

NOTICE.

In the County Court of Douglas County, Nebraska.

In the Matter of the Estate of Hampton A. Watson, deceased.

To the Heirs-at-Law, Creditors and All Persons interested in said Estate:

You are hereby notified that a petition was filed in this Court on the 26th day of February, 1918, alleging that Hampton A. Watson died in the year 1905, leaving no will and testament; that at the time of his death he was a resident of Douglas County, Nebraska, and was possessed of the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot 47, in Nelson's Addition to Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska, as platted and recorded; that your petitioner is interested in said estate as an heir to one-third interest therein; said petitioner prays that a hearing be had on said petition and that notice thereof be given as provided by law, and that upon said hearing a decree of heirship be entered finding that the sole heirs of Hampton A. Watson, deceased, are William A. Watson, Howard O. Watson and your petitioner, all being the sons and only daughter of deceased; and that further administration be dispensed with.

You are, therefore, notified that a hearing will be had on said petition at the County Court Room of said County on the 30th day of March, 1918, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m. and that if you fail to appear and contest the said petition the Court may grant the same and enter decree of heirship, and decree that further administration of said estate be dispensed with.
BRYCE CRAWFORD,
(35-37) County Judge.

PROBATE NOTICE

In the Matter of the Estate of Elizabeth Harden, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the creditors of said deceased will meet the executor of said estate, before me, County Judge of Douglas County, Nebraska, at the County Court Room, in said County, on the 18th day of April, 1918, and on the 18th day of June, 1918, at 9 o'clock a. m., each day, for the purpose of presenting their claims for examination, adjustment and allowance. Three months are allowed for the creditors to present their claims from the 17th day of March, 1918.

BRYCE CRAWFORD,
County Judge.
