

Among the Churches

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

A good-sized congregation was present at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning, at which time the holy communion was celebrated and the Rev. John Albert Williams preached an impressive historical sermon reviewing the activities of the congregation during the past twenty-five years. The same hymns were sung at this service which were sung at the consecration of the church.

In the evening at 8 o'clock an instructive sermon was preached by the Rev. Carl M. Worden, vicar of St. Matthias church.

Next Wednesday night the annual parish meeting and social will be held in the guild rooms, at which reports for the year will be given and the board of officers chosen.

The services on Sunday will be as follows: Holy communion at 7:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10; holy communion and sermon at 11; evening prayer and sermon at 8 o'clock.

Everybody is welcome at all services. Among the strangers moving into our city there may be some who are members of the Episcopal church. They are requested to come out and make themselves known.

The Woman's auxiliary will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. H. R. Roberts, 2610 North Twenty-eighth avenue.

NEWS OF ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH

The three weeks' revival conducted by the Rev. Mr. Scott of Chicago closed last Sunday with 122 additions to the church. Such meetings have never been witnessed before in St. John's. The spacious auditorium and balcony were filled at each service. A general class was held Friday evening for the new converts.

The collection for Sunday was $174.53. The class dues alone were $32.80.

The Rev. Mr. Scott was very highly entertained while in the city with luncheons and dinners, especially the last two days.

On Friday the W. W. club spread a sumptuous luncheon in the lecture room in his honor. The table was very beautifully decorated in pink and white carnations.

Saturday evening Mrs. Fannie Crowe entertained at a very elaborate five-course dinner at the parsonage in honor of the Rev. Mr. Scott and Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Williams. Covers were laid for fourteen. This was, indeed, a culminating event, as all the delicacies of the season were served. In the center of the table a huge mound of pink and white Killarney roses was placed, which made a very charming effect. Each guest was given a memento, after which all bade Rev. Mr. Scott adieu. He left Saturday evening for his home in Chicago.

The sick of the church are Mrs. Petty and Mr. S. K. Brownlow.

Mrs. Glover held her Tuesday night prayer meeting at the residence of Mrs. Blackwell, Thirty-second and Pinkney streets.

DISCHARGED SOLDIER'S SAD FLIGHT

Philadelphia, Pa.—Among those seeking relief at the home service department of the Red Cross recently was a Negro soldier.

"I was honorably discharged from a camp in Texas," he said, "on account of my eyes, and reached here on March 4. I haven't a cent and can't go back to my old job as chauffeur until my eyes are better. What shall I do?"

"Well, if you were discharged from the army," he was asked, "why do you still wear the uniform? Don't you know you may be arrested?"

"That may be," he replied, "but I haven't any other suit."

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION

To the People of Nebraska:
To meet the vast financial demands incident to the prosecution of America's stupendous war program, the government is calling upon the people of the nation for subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan.

The response of the patriotic people of Nebraska to the previous calls of the government in all phases of war work has been a most enviable one. Our quota for the army and for the navy have been over-enlisted; our obligations to the Red Cross and kindred organizations have been fully satisfied. In the last Red Cross campaign Nebraska stood first per capita of population among all the states of the Nation. In the recent campaign for the sale of Thrift Stamps Nebraska again excelled all our sister states on a per capita basis. Our people have readily responded in the previous campaign for the sale of Liberty Bonds, and I earnestly urge upon the patriotic Nebraskans that they make a supreme effort to eclipse the state's previous responses to our country's calls by making the coming Liberty Loan Campaign not only the banner one for Nebraska, but for the Nation as well.

KEITH NEVILLE,
Governor.

EVERY MAN'S PLEDGE

America shall win this war! Therefore, I will work, I will save, I will sacrifice, I will fight—cheerfully and to my utmost—as if the whole outcome of the struggle depended upon me alone. I will buy, buy, and still buy, Liberty Bonds!

MOVIE ACTORS TO SELL BONDS IN NEBRASKA.

The Nebraska Liberty Loan committee announces that Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, Dorothy Brooks and Marguerite Clark will tour Nebraska in the interests of the third Liberty Loan.

NEBRASKA ADVERTISERS CAN HELP LOAN.

The Nebraska Liberty Loan committee is asking the advertisers of the state to insert the following or a similar sentiment at the bottom of their advertisements:

"Remember the third Liberty Loan drive. Resolve to do your part."

Advertising solicitors are asked to suggest the insertion of such a sentiment in every piece of copy they secure.

LIBERTY LOAN TO BE ADVERTISED.

The Nebraska Liberty Loan committee is asking every county chairman to raise a fund to be used in advertising the coming Liberty Loan in every newspaper in each county. The committee will furnish plates in which can be inserted the names of those who contribute to the fund. The chairman is asked to secure the funds so far as possible from those who do not regularly advertise, so that the newspapers will not be deprived of any revenue.

"RING IT AGAIN." Exact reproductions of the famous Liberty Bell and Independence Hall, in Philadelphia, are shown in the "Ring It Again" posters which are being used in the Third Liberty Loan campaign. The poster, lithographed in eight colors, depicts an enthusiastic throng surrounding Independence Hall while the Liberty Bell rings out its message of freedom and democracy.

NEBRASKA READY FOR THIRD LIBERTY LOAN.

"Nebraska is ready for the third Liberty Loan," says Thos. C. Byrne, state chairman of the Liberty Loan committee. "No matter what our quota, we are so well organized I believe the entire issue could be floated in three days if necessary. We have the loyal support of 97 chairmen, 1,049 committeemen, and by the time the drive starts we expect to have an army of over 15,000 workers."

VETERAN MAJOR ANSWERS FINAL SUMMONS

Washington, D. C., April 11.—Major James E. Walker of the national army, formerly in command of the First Separate Battalion of the Columbia Guard of the District of Columbia, died in the army general hospital at Fort Bayard, N. M., Thursday, April 4, after several months' illness from tuberculosis.

He was educated in the Colored public schools in this city, and for many years was their supervising principal. Twenty years ago he joined the First Separate Battalion and rose to command rank several years ago.

He was in command when that organization was called into the federal service for patrol duty along the Mexican border, and subsequently when it was recalled to this city for incorporation into the national army for service in the war with Germany.

His health was undermined by the Mexican service, and about two months ago he was retired on account of physical disability and sent to the army tuberculosis hospital at Fort Bayard for treatment. As he was reported to be improving his friends here were surprised to hear of his death. Arrangements have been made to bring his body here for burial. His wife and two children live at 504 T street. Major Walker was a member of many fraternal and beneficial organizations.

FORM HOME GUARD

Columbia, La.—The Colored citizens of Caldwell parish met recently to organize a home guard to be composed of men not subject to military duty.

There were 217 Colored persons present, exclusive of the women, and of that number 216 had their names enrolled as members of the home guard. Several white persons were present, and gave unrestricted encouragement to the Colored people in their patriotic endeavors. S. R. Burton, a Baptist minister, gave a strong address.

Members of the home guard issued the following warning "to those who have not: We advise that you get in line at once and help preserve our country."
