COLORED ATHLETE AT LINCOLN HIGH STARS

Coach Bob Hager of Lincoln High has developed one of the most sterling track men that ever ran a race in the person of Gene Nichols, the local long distance runner. In the state high school track meet Saturday, held in Lincoln, he finished far ahead of all competitors in both mile and half-mile races. His time made in the mile was 4:41, lowering the state record in that event almost 3 seconds and finishing 4 seconds ahead of Hauser of Minnesota, the western conference champion.

Guy Reed, former track star and coach of Nebraska track athletics, predicts a dazzling career for Nichols when he steps into university circles.

MISS MARY E. EVANS MADE FAVORABLE IMPRESSION

Miss Mary Evans, the noted evangelist, has left a lasting impression upon the people of Lincoln. As a result of her labors a good number have been added to the churches. Her work as a Bible teacher was most acceptable, showing her to be a profound student of that wonderful book. Large numbers of both races attended her meetings. Miss Evans left last Wednesday for Los Angeles.
