

AMERICAN SOLDIERS HALTING THE TEUTONS AT THE LORRAINE GATE

Here are two of the first pictures received in the United States showing our boys at the actual fighting from holding a portion of the Lorraine sector against the Teuton horde. At the top is shown a section of a trench held by American troops, and at the bottom a soldier ready to fire a rocket as a warning that an attack has begun.

GREAT GATHERING OF BRITISH TANKS ON THE WESTERN FRONT

Twenty odd tanks of the British army can be counted in the tankdrome. They are only a small part of the great number of tanks that the British have. The censor, of course, will not state how many tanks the British forces have on the western front, but it can be said that the number is very large and altogether sufficient to meet any attack by the enemy. The side armor of the tank in the foreground has been removed, giving a view of the interior of this monster and the mechanism that operates it.
