

OUR LINCOLN ADVERTISERS

The merchants of Lincoln believe in advertising right and they know a good advertising medium when they see it.

Lincoln has some of the finest stores in the country and The Monitor is proud of the fact that several of these are among our best satisfied advertising patrons.

These stores appreciate the trade of the Colored people and they are getting it for several good reasons:

1. They sell good goods at reasonable prices.
2. They are courteous and obliging to all.
3. They make it known that they desire our patronage by advertising in our newspaper.

We desire to call our readers' attention to the fact that these firms will be pleased to handle mail orders as well as selling goods over the counter.

Should any out-of-town people visit Lincoln we hope that they will make it a point to visit such stores as Speier-Simons, Armstrong's, Mayer Bros. company and H. Herpolsheimer company.

Be sure to make it a point to patronize these stores and tell them why.

PUTTING LINCOLN ON THE MAP

As everybody knows, The Monitor has a large and growing circulation. It has been putting Omaha on the map all over the United States, but chiefly in the West and South. But the way the Lincoln people are pushing The Monitor and the space they are demanding is putting Lincoln on the map. Lincoln is a live wire.

Lincoln Department

The funeral of Mr. Peter Turner was held Thursday at the Mount Zion Baptist church at 2:30, Rev. O. J. Burckhardt and Rev. R. R. Powers officiating. A large number of sorrowing friends were present. It being Decoration day interment was made at Wyuka cemetery Friday at 1 o'clock. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Mrs. Martha Turner, Mrs. Dodd, her sister, and Mrs. H. P. Carroll, after attending the funeral services of Mr. Peter Turner, returned to Omaha Friday evening.

Mrs. Ida Todd and Mrs. Jessie Beard were confined at home on account of illness.

Mrs. Rebecca Price of Kansas City spent a week in the city, having been called here on account of the death of her brother, Mr. Peter Turner.

Mrs. R. R. Powers and daughter, Willa May, arrived in the city last Saturday from El Reno, Okla., to join Rev. Mr. Powers in his new field of labor.

Mr. Solomon Nelson returned from a pleasant visit with his parents at Shelby, Miss., after a month's absence.

All services at the Baptist church were largely attended, especially the evening services, when the sacrament was administered after a soul-stirring sermon on "The Handwriting on the Wall" had been delivered by Rev. R. R. Powers.

Patriotic Children's day services will be held Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Baptist church. All are welcome.

The Women's Mission Circle of the Baptist church held memorial services last Thursday evening, presided over by Mrs. Ellen Corneal.

The annual sermon of the Sir Knights and Daughters of the Tabernacle will be preached the third Sunday in June at 3 o'clock at the Baptist church. Don't fail to witness this grand affair.

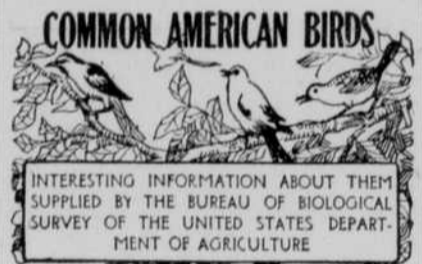

HEARTY WELCOME FOR SIMMONS

One of the greatest welcomes ever accorded a Colored citizen is being planned for Hon. Roscoe Conklin Simmons, the nationally known orator of the race in America. Unless some unforeseen hitch is caused by train schedule, a large committee of distinguished Omahans, accompanied by the First Regimental Band, will meet Mr. Simmons at the station on his arrival. At the Auditorium there will be many of Omaha's best known citizens, both white and Colored, who have consented to join in giving a rousing reception to the fearless champion of race rights in the south. A most elaborate program has been arranged for, among the numbers being a patriotic concert by the First Regimental Band, patriotic songs by the Community Chorus of 300 voices under the direction of Mrs. Flora Pinkston, the celebrated pianist, numerous social, secret and business organizations attending in bodies. The Invocation is to be delivered by Rabbi Cohn, of Temple Israel, Mayor Smith to give an address of welcome, and Rev. John Albert Williams to preside. In all it promises to be a feature affair and will not be missed by any who can possibly attend.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincerest thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the recent illness and death of Mr. Peter Turner. We would not fail to mention the beautiful floral offerings and assure you that we are profoundly grateful to all those who helped in any way to lessen our sorrow during those dark hours.—Mrs. Martha Brooks Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Al Jones.

NEGO LYNCHED IN TEXAS
Beaumont, Tex., May 28.—Kirby Goolsee, a 19-year-old Negro, was lynched last night by a mob near Woodville. The Negro was charged with having attacked a white girl of Woodville, according to advices received here.

COMMON AMERICAN BIRDS
INTERESTING INFORMATION ABOUT THEM SUPPLIED BY THE BUREAU OF BIOLOGICAL SURVEY OF THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

ROBIN
(Pianesticus migratorius)

Length, ten inches.
Range: Breeds in the United States (except the gulf states), Canada Alaska and Mexico; winters in most of the United States and south to Guatemala.

Habits and economic status: In the North and some parts of the West the robin is among the most cherished of our native birds. Should it ever become rare where now common, its joyous summer song and familiar presence will be sadly missed in many a homestead. The robin is an omnivorous feeder, and its food includes many orders of insects, with no very pronounced preference for any. It is very fond of earthworms, but its real economic status is determined by the vegetable food, which amounts to about 58 per cent of all. The principal item is fruit, which forms more than 51 per cent of the total food. The fact that in the examination of over 1,200 stomachs the percentage of wild fruit was found to be five times that of the cultivated varieties suggests that berry-bearing shrubs, if planted near the orchard, will serve to protect more valuable fruits. In California in certain years it has been possible to save the olive crop from hungry robins only by the most strenuous exertions and considerable expense. The bird's general usefulness is such, however, that all reasonable means of protecting orchard fruit should be tried before killing the birds.

What the Press Says

COLORED

Condone by Silence

If President Wilson would take the same interest to prevent the lynching of Negroes that Attorney General Gregory did to indict the murderers of Albert Praeger, a German-American recently lynched in Illinois, every Negro would not hesitate to make every possible sacrifice to win this war. However, our president condones the wrongs against real Americans by his cruel silence.—Twin City Star.

Will Come Into Their Own

Colored men are leading the world in riveting and Colored men are making a reputation for themselves on the front in France. By the time the war is over Colored folks will have come into their own again.—Richmond (Va.) Planet.

Why Neglect This Problem?

One of the very unpleasant bits of information that comes to our attention this week is more lynching in Tennessee and Georgia. The government could make one-tenth of its most loyal and progressive citizens feel like life was worth living by taking some aggressive steps to stop this blot on the fair reputation of the United States of America.

We have tired of listening to the plea or excuse that there is no federal law. The Leader is of the opinion that there is no situation that can arise in the United States during war times that cannot be adjusted to the credit of law and justice.—Detroit Leader.

American Huns

At about the same time that Colored children, women and unarmed men, were falling victims to the barbarities of our American Huns, the famous "Scrapping Fifteenth" met the German Huns and routed them, themselves out numbered twenty-four to two.—Amsterdam News.

WHITE

For Law and Order

The state and national officials in Illinois have indicted sixteen persons for the lynching of Robert Praeger at Collinsville and a plan has been set on foot for crushing at the outset any similar outbreak of lawlessness. We also read the encouraging news that twenty-one persons in Bisbee, Ariz., implicated in the business of deporting strikers have been indicted. If now the government will show interest in the Negro atrocities in the South we shall begin to take on the appearance of a law-abiding people.—The Churchman (New York).

"Courage and Energy"—How Rewarded

"He gave a magnificent example of courage and energy," says a French general of division of Private Henry Johnson, U. S. A., Colored. "A good and brave soldier," he says of Needham Roberts, also Colored, whose life Johnson saved. "Both men fought bravely," says General Pershing in his official communique. Together, though both severely wounded, they beat off an attack by twenty Germans in a listening post, forcing them to flee. For their splendid initiative, valor and determination the Croix de Guerre has been awarded them; to Johnson the gold palm also.

Upon the same page of the World that described this feat of arms appeared a dispatch from Valdosta, Ga., telling how Mary Turner, Colored, was hanged by a mob.

For the crime of killing a white farmer and wounding his wife two men had been lynched last week. Mrs. Turner was the fourth victim, her husband preceding her by a few hours. The murder plot was supposed to have been made in her home; she "was said to have had" the dead farmer's watch when captured. Legal evidence against her there was none; even the lynch law testimony, not subject to cross-examination, was worthless and inconclusive.

In France two Negro volunteers, badly wounded, give an example of courage and energy in the defence of democracy which is deemed worthy of citation before a whole army division and by General Pershing. In one of the leading states of the South a Negro woman is put to death by a mob, without compassion for her sex, without benefit of clergy, without evidence or plea, in defiance of law and justice.

With tens of thousands of American Negroes fighting for civilization in France under the American flag, how much longer are the American people to tolerate Negro lynchings?—New York World.
