and lift them up so that they will enjoy the highest types of civilization. Encourage them to imitate the good and not the bad qualities of mankind.

That eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. That the war will terminate when the Colored boys of the United States return with the flag that has been bathed in the blood of those left behind. Then we will say to those of the south, who have tried to hold us back, "Let not your hearts be troubled."

Mrs. Alice Carriger was called to St. Joseph on account of the serious illness of her husband, Mr. John Carriger, who was on his way to Excelsior Springs, Mo., for his health.

Mr. O'Donald was taken quite ill Sunday, June 30, but is much improved now.

Mr. Al Taylor expects to be moved from the hospital to his home about Wednesday.

Mrs. Robert Johnson was also taken suddenly ill Sunday evening, but is much improved now.

Last Sunday Rev. and Mrs. I. B. Smith had as their guest little Mr. Burt Newton of Beatrice, who remained with them until Tuesday, when he returned to his home. Mr. Newton is Mrs. Smith's nephew.

A delightful party was given Monday, July 1, by Miss Lela Flippin in honor of Mrs. Emma Peniston, who celebrated her birthday by entertaining fourteen guests. The hostess looked very charming and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. A dainty and yet beautiful three-course luncheon was served. Everyone present enjoyed it to the utmost and upon their departure they not only congratulated her, but wished her as many more years of happiness as had already passed over her head. Those present were:

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Payne, Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Burkhardt, Rev. and Mrs. I. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. Robert Johnson, Mr. J. E. Jeltz, Mr. Patrick, Mrs. Sarah Walker, Miss Flossie Patrick, Miss Dorothy Flippin.

A telegram was sent by the members of the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P. to the executive mansion asking President Woodrow Wilson to denounce in his Fourth of July address at least the lynching of Colored women, if he does not as yet see fit to speak against the lynching of Colored men.

The Dunbar Boosters held a very delightful meeting at the home of Mr. Kelley. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present.

Miss Almata Godfrey, who has been visiting at the home of Miss Edna Davis returned to her home in Kansas City Sunday.

Mrs. Richard Jones of Omaha is visiting Mrs. Roy Ford at her new home, 718 West Eighth street.

Mrs. Loraine Dorsey has returned, accompanied by her son, from Streeter, Ill., where she was called owing to the illness of her mother.

Mrs. Laura Johnson, grand lecturer of the Grand Chapter of Missouri, returned from a lecture tour over the state of Missouri and jurisdiction.

Mrs. Joseph Smith of Santiago, Cal., accompanied by Mrs. Thompson of that city arrived in Lincoln Sunday evening June 30, to visit her mother, Mrs. O'Donald, who has been quite ill.

Mrs. Mary B. Talbert, president of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, under the auspices of the Davis club, gave a grand lecture Friday evening at the Mount Zion Baptist church to a large audience. She also lectured at the same church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to another enthusiastic audience. Splendid collections were raised for the national association for the protection of Colored people.

The Invincible Concert company gave one of their excellent programs at the Baptist church last Tuesday evening, under the management of St. Anne's tabernacle, No. 92. As Mrs. Blanche Johnson and daughter were formerly citizens here it brought out a large concourse of friends. The concert, from the opening selection to the last number, was a most enjoyable affair and elicited much applause.

Mrs. Lulu B. Moore and Mrs. Jennie Sellers will leave Monday for Topeka as delegates to the Grand Temple and Tabernacle, which convenes July 8.

Miss Lottie Allen left Sunday night for her home in Enid, Okla., after making her home here with her brother for the past three years.

The quarterly reports last Sunday at the Baptist Sunday school were grand, showing $92.30 received during the quarter, $51.80 being brought forward from the last quarter; paid out, $41.70; balance on hand, $102.40. Class No. 2 was awarded the quarterly banner, having raised $27.54. Class No. 6 raised $27.33 and was a close second.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Williams are visiting relatives and friends for a week in Kansas City.

The Gideon Band held a very beneficial meeting last Thursday at Mrs. Maggie Williams.

The annual sermon of the Sons and Daughters of Jerusalem will be held the second Sunday in July at the Newman church.
