BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. T. A. Taggart, Pastor.

Sunday morning service, 10:45; B. Y. P. U., 6 p. m.; preaching Sunday night, 8 o'clock.

Several additions were made to the church last Sunday night. Sermon topic, "I Am Ragged, but I Am Around Here."

Mr. John Vaughn of 5420 South Twenty-seventh street is expecting to go to the hospital for an operation.

Miss Rosalie Young has been confined to her home for some time, but is somewhat improved.

MOUNT MORIAH CHURCH

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.

There is everything to glory in, as we look with pleasure over the record of the month of June, in connection with the Mount Moriah Baptist church. There were many additions made during the month. Money taken in on regular offering, $187.45; other sources, $34.35.

Our rally was dated to take place on Sunday, June 30, with the hope of raising $500 to clear the church of all debts. Surely the rally did come off and we raised $803.14. Each male member was responsible for $4 and each female for $3. They were to rally by the states from which they have come. New York, one member, $7.35; Maryland, one member, $3; Mississippi, one member, $3; Missouri, $158; Kansas, $92; Oklahoma, $71; Arkansas, $36.35; Texas, $47.75; Alabama, $47.25; Tennessee, $39; Florida, $72.50; Kentucky, $70.22; Nebraska, $26.25; Illinois, $36.05; Georgia, $21.75.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA.

Tabernacle Baptist church, which is holding jubilee services this week, is meeting with success.

"The Mock Frog Hollow Conference" Tuesday night provoked much merriment and was a marked success.

The Methodist church held a successful bazaar July 4.

George Cornelius Ware, Harvey Hoagland, James Woodson, Lloyd Johnson and Governor Hill are among the draftees who are to leave about July 16.

Miss Frances Lee is The Monitor's representative, agent and correspondent in Council Bluffs. Send news items and subscriptions to her. Let the public know that Council Bluffs is wide awake.

PALESTINE, TEXAS.

The West Union Baptist church is still battling against the devil and they are having a good success. The meetings are conducted by the Rev. P. James Bryant a soul stirring minister and he is stirring things.

Rev. S. M. Bolden filled his pulpit Sunday.

Rev. A. W. Williams was at his post Sunday.

Rev. H. McKenna was in his place Sunday.

Mrs. Ollie Knox is still on the sick list.

Mr. Rev. Lee died last Thursday after a short illness.

Mrs. Luverna Thomas died in Fort Worth last Friday, and they are looking for the body to be shipped here today.

Mrs. Matilda Hall died last Friday. She was a very old resident of this city and was thought well of by all the people that knew her.

St. John's day was observed here at Mt. Vernon A. M. E. church, under the auspices of Dean lodge No. 90, A. F. and A. M. on last Sunday. The sermon was preached by the Rev. A. W. Williams, pastor of the church.

Rev. J. Netters of Ironton was in the city on Sunday, making his visit at St. Paul A. M. E. church.

Deaconess Simpson of the Methodist Episcopal church made a fine lecture at St. Paul's church and had a good crowd.

Mr. I. H. Bland is as busy as a bee these days, as he has so many funerals to attend.

Mr. John Hunters home is nearing completion, and it will be a beauty when finished. J. L. Randbaugh has the contract and he is a very fine carpenter.

Louisiana, $20.10; Iowa, $27.50; Sunday school, $10; Swastika Art and Literary club, $10; total taken in for the month of June, 1918, $1,024.94.

We are sorry to say that there were a very few of our members who were on the nothing list on Sunday, but we are hoping that they will come out from their hiding places next Sunday and be on the something list.

Our church is now free from all debts. We owe no man anything, thus obeying the mandate of the scripture.

Next Sunday will be covenant in the morning; sermon, fellowship and communion at night.

Mr. W. H. Salisbury of 2709 North Twenty-sixth street died Sunday, June 30. The funeral was held Monday at Silas Johnson's Western Funeral Home, after which the remains were shipped to St. Joseph for burial. The Rev. M. H. Wilkinson officiated.

HOW COLORED PEOPLE MAY HELP IN WAR WORK

(Editorial in the Washington Bee.)

When Mr. Emmett J. Scott was appointed to be a special assistant to the secretary of war in matters relating to our Colored people as a factor in the present war, the Bee commended the appointment and warmly approved the selection. Secretary Baker's wisdom in making the appointment is already more than demonstrated. That Mr. Scott was the ideal man for the job is already more than demonstrated.

There are two thoughts that stand out prominently in this connection. One is the gratitude of a large segment of our population to Mr. Baker for the liberality and courage in him that made the appointment possible; the other is the satisfaction of the Colored race in possessing a man of Mr. Scott's character, tact, adaptability and capacity.

Another thought is: What can the Colored people do to help Mr. Baker and Mr. Scott to make the work a success? Our answer is: Do not ask a multiplicity of embarrassing questions. Refrain from all adverse criticisms. Offer constructive suggestions, calculated to be useful to the country. Co-operate in every reasonable way that Mr. Scott may indicate.

It is not necessary that all of us at such a time should know all the reasons for all proposed measures and steps. At such a time we must all be, if not actual soldiers, soldiers at heart. The spirit of true soldiers is the spirit of the daring six hundred who rode into the jaws of death at Balaklava:

"Ours not to reason why;
Ours but to do and die."

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING

Negro Socialists

For some little while the socialists of New York City have been supporting a weekly newspaper among the Colored people. This paper, well edited and dealing with the vital issues of the day, has been making sentiment for the party. Thousands of Colored men and women have joined the socialists and as a sort of token of appreciation the socialist party in New York has entered Colored candidates for congress, the state senate and for the state legislature. Dr. George Frazier Miller is the party's congressional candidate; Mr. A. Philip Randolph, candidate for the state senate, while Mr. Chandler Owens is candidate for the assembly. This recognition of Colored men will do much to stimulate the Negro's interest and co-operation in the socialist party, not alone in New York but throughout the country.—Citizens Advocate, Los Angeles, Cal.

The Pardoning Power

President Woodrow Wilson has seen fit to accord to two white soldiers found asleep at their posts in France an unconditional pardon, although they had been condemned to death by a court-martial. In a military sense there is but one crime greater and that is the crime of communicating information to the enemy. Men conveying this information are called spies.

We have been waiting and watching for a report as to what is to be done in the cases of the five Colored troopers, under sentence of death for participation in the so-called Houston riots. About forty Colored men have been punished and not a single white man. This seems to us to be a one-sided justice, which might be denominated one-sided injustice.

Thirteen Colored men have been executed, one of whom was not even at the scene of the alleged riot. President Woodrow Wilson would do even-handed justice in pardoning these men, just as he has done in the other cases. We shall trust him to this extent and we believe that our faith in him will not be in vain.—Richmond (Va.) Planet.

CHOSEN EDITOR OF HIGH SCHOOL MAGAZINE

St. Paul, Minn.—Roy Wilkins has been elected to the presidency of the Mechanical Arts High School Literary society, which also places him in the position of editor of the High School Magazine. His election was over two of the white students of the school and his number of votes received was more than the combined votes of the other two candidates.
