PALESTINE, TEX.

The Western Union Baptist church is nearing completion. The thing that disgusted me was that when I, the writer, passed there on last Tuesday I found some white men doing the work. We have some Negroes that can do the work as well as any white men. In fact the Negroes laid the foundation and did all that had been done. We must pull together if we are ever anything.

All the churches had their regular services on Sunday.

Some of our Negro boys are leaving today for Camp Travis. They are going in good spirits. The boys think they will get the kaiser pretty soon.

We had a shooting scrape on last Friday in which Dr. W. R. Roberts got shot in the right arm. J. F. Hunter surrendered to the officers and was locked up. On Saturday he made his bond and was released.

The rally at Grant Chapel was a success. Yesterday they raised $563 for the trustees.

Mr. Wm. Rose is limping around as the result of a nail that was stuck in his foot.

B. F. Wallace was in the office today on business.

Mr. G. E. Thomas went to Jacksonville last Saturday on business.

Mr. J. F. Hunter has moved into his new home on Stean avenue.

Ben Brown died on Saturday and was buried Sunday by I. H. Bland, the popular undertaker of this town.
