MRS. SARAH WALKER.

RECEPTION FOR DRAFTEES

About three hundred people were present at the reception for the drafted boys given at Masonic hall Wednesday, July 31, by the members of the N. A. A. C. P. The Dunbar Boosters were present to assist in the entertainment of the boys. Likewise were the members of the "Ada Young unit" in their uniforms. This organization was recently formed for the purpose of doing Red Cross work for our boys "over there."

The patriotic program was opened by the singing of "America;" invocation by Rev. J. S. Payne; address by the president, Mr. Clyde Malone; paper, by Mrs. Lela Flipping; song, "Keep the Home Fires Burning;" reading, "Whistling Sam," by Mrs. Smith; paper, "Our Boys as Soldiers," by Mrs. Woods; song, "Joan of Arc," sang as tribute to the women; reading, "The Negro Soldier," Mrs. Sarah Walker.

After a few encouraging remarks were made by Mr. Trago McWilliams, a cake, given by Mrs. Gibson to the boys was presented to them by Mr. Wm. Woods.

After the presentation of the cake, the audience retired to the reception room, where refreshments were served by the members of the Red Cross.

Gives Boys Good Send Off.

A crowd of several hundred Colored people gathered at the station early Thursday morning to see the fifteen Colored registrants leave for Camp Funston. The boys were the recipients of several receptions before their departure. They were entertained by the following: Members of the First A. M. E. church, the Dunbar Boosters and by the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P.

This was the second contingent to leave for Camp Funston and it has been indicated that the August call will take more men from the division of Colored men in class 1. The following boys left Thursday for Camp Funston:

SELECTMEN STOP OVER IN LINCOLN

A company of nine selectmen from Grand Island and Alliance, Neb., arrived in Lincoln Thursday evening en route to Camp Funston. Their intention was to spend the evening in Lincoln, leaving early Friday morning for the training camp, but were sent upon the wrong train. This caused them to be put off some distance down the road, making them too late to catch the next train, so they were compelled to spend Friday in our city, leaving for their destination early Saturday morning.

Mr. Robert Johnson was accompanied on his trip from Denver, Colo., last Thursday by Mr. Geasta Volata, a Hindu, who now resides in Chicago. Mr. Volata is capable of speaking 24 languages and has visited nearly all the countries of Europe.

MISS MARY G. EVANS LECTURES ON A "TRIP TO THE HOLY CITY"

A very large audience greeted Miss Mary G. Evans, the noted evangelist when she spoke on "A Trip to the Holy Land," last Friday evening. The program was opened by the singing of "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Invocation by Rev. J. S. Payne; a song entitled "The Holy City" was rendered very effectively by Mr. J. E. Jeltz, accompanied by Mrs. Isetta Malone.

In speaking of her trip Miss Evans spoke of visiting all the prominent cities of France, Germany and Switzerland; of attending the Sunday school convention at Zurich and of the wonderful inspiration received there. Leaving Zurich she went to Italy, Greece and thence to the Holy Land.

She also had the pleasure of witnessing the worship of the Mohammedans in Constantinople, noting while there the wonderful colorings of the sky and the innumerable tinted islands. In the Holy Land she visited such biblical places as the Isle of Patmos and the ruins of the temple of Baal in Syria.

One feature of this magnificent structure is that each block of limestone used weighs one thousand tons. Another portion of interest viewed were the cedars of Lebanon, Damascus and the city of Tiberius on the sea of Galilee.

Miss Evans also had the pleasure of visiting the little town of Nazareth.

the home of Mary, the Church of the Incision, Jacob's well, and the most sacred city in all the world, Jerusalem, where is found more beggars than anywhere else on the face of the globe.

She also visited Bethlehem, the city of Jericho, House of Rahab and also noted the grandeur of the River Jordan, where she was baptized. In the course of her tour she visited Tyrol in Egypt and also the two remaining pyramids, learning while there that the mummies of Rameses and King Pharaoh had been removed to the museum nearby. After passing the rock of Gibraltar and before she was well on her way home, she experienced one of the worst storms she had ever seen in the gulf stream.

CAPTAIN BRYAN COMMANDS COLORED COMPANY

In speaking with Mr. Charles W. Bryan last Thursday, our former mayor of Lincoln and now candidate for governor, I was informed that his son, Silas N. Bryan, a young man of marked degree of intelligence is performing military duty at Camp Dodge.

One interesting feature of Captain Silas N. Bryan's career is that he resigned his position as instructor of officers at one of the training camps several months ago, making application for the captaincy of a troop of Colored soldiers.

Captain Bryan received the appointment and is now captain of Company One, 804th Colored infantry at Camp Dodge. He has been preparing this infantry for active duty and they are almost in readiness for service in France.
