

PRINCIPAL OBJECTS OF THE RACE SERVICE BUREAU

- To Make Friends Among the White People for the Race. To Seek New and Better Opportunities for Men and Women of our Race. To Fight Color Prejudice. To Teach Race Unity. To Eliminate the Use of the Term "NIGGER." To Aid Those Who Merit Aid. To Teach Negroes How to Conduct Themselves, In Order to Gain the Respect of Both White and Colored People.

YOU CAN HELP US By Sending Your Name and Address to Race Service Bureau

3137 PINE ST. ST. LOUIS, MO.

P. H. JENKINS The Barber

We are now in our new location at Twenty-fourth and Burdette streets, where we will have plenty of room. Everything strictly sanitary and up-to-date with all modern conveniences. My shop stands on its merits for what is right, and what the people demand. A first class place, up-to-date methods, with latest improvements. No pool hall in connection with my business. My shop is open to ladies as well as gentlemen, with due courtesy and respect to all young boys as well. The Colored people are growing and improving and we must meet their demands. They want the best and we must deliver. I have it for you, so come. I solicit your patronage.

VISIT OUR SODA FOUNTAIN AND ICE CREAM PARLOR IN CONNECTION

With Miss Radel Green as Soda Dispenser and Manager We solicit the patronage of all ladies, gentlemen and friends. Try our refreshing drinks and delicious Cream. WE ARE OPEN SUNDAYS. New Location, 24th and Burdette Sts.

Events and Persons

Buy a Liberty Bond. Mrs. A. W. Parker has received a card from her son, A. W. Parker, announcing that he has arrived safely in France. She also received a letter from her youngest son, Laurence, that he had arrived safely at Camp Pike and has entered upon four months' training for a commission. Robert F. Preyer has received word from his son, Levi, who is now in France.

Furnished Rooms—Strictly modern. With or without board. 1516 North 16th. Tel. Webster 4983.

A letter from Winfred Johnson, who is at Norfolk, Va., reports that work at the shipyards is plentiful and that all the Colored men are doing finely. J. H. Broomfield purchased an eighty acre farm last week near Ft. Calhoun, Neb.

Mrs. Sarah Walker, the hustling representative of The Monitor at Lincoln, is a visitor in the city and attending the carnival.

A Liberty bond is always an asset. Miss Beatrice Shelton, formerly at R. Jackson's cabaret, is now singing at the Netherwood, formerly known as the Mecca, and Mr. Chas. Harold of Perkins' orchestra fame, now playing at the Mecca, is making a big hit. The patronage is crazy about his drumming, and the well-known Hal Bonaparte, formerly of the Dunbar club, and now playing at the Netherwood, is a wonder, "the boy with the sweet touch on the ivories." The management of the Netherwood is well known for their clean, up-to-date entertainments which have been endorsed by the board of welfare, the press and public. The management extends to you a hearty welcome to the Netherwood cafe and garden, 24th and Grant streets. Hot lunch and soft drinks. Wm. Snell, president; Mrs. P. A. Bell, treasurer; Othello Rountree, secretary. Real patriotism wants a Liberty bond.

Mrs. John Long and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rufus Long, paid a visit to Camp Funston last week.

Amos P. Scruggs, Omaha's brilliant Colored lawyer, is now back in active practice and has the honor of being the first Colored lawyer to be admitted to practice in the federal courts in this city.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, the undersigned in order to organize and form a corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated, pursuant to the provisions of the laws of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify, make, adopt and execute the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this corporation shall be, THE NORTH-END AMUSEMENT COMPANY.

ARTICLE II. LOCATION

The location of the registered office of this corporation shall be in the City of Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska.

ARTICLE III. CAPITAL STOCK

The total authorized capital stock of this corporation shall be $10,000.00 divided into shares of the par value of $100.00 each, all of which shall be Common Stock, and this stock may be issued for cash or for property or other thing of value as determined by the Board of Directors and the Company shall commence business when the total amount of said Stock shall be subscribed and paid for, and the Capital Stock of the Company shall be transferable only in the books of the Company, in person or by attorney, and the Board of Directors shall have power to regulate the manner in which the transfer shall be made.

ARTICLE IV. OBJECTS AND PLAN

The objects for which this corporation is formed are, to buy, hold, and sell real estate, to acquire the same by purchase, gift, devise, lease or otherwise; to own, mortgage, lease, convey, use and develop any such real estate; to collect rents, to acquire, own, hold and dispose of personal property when necessary or expedient in carrying on the objects for which this corporation is formed; to do any and all things consistent with the laws of the State of Nebraska that will in any way advance the interests of this corporation, and to exercise any and all powers which a copartnership or natural person could do or exercise and which now or hereafter may be authorized by the laws of the State of Nebraska.

ARTICLE V. TERM OF EXISTENCE

The term of existence of this corporation shall be a period of fifty (50) years from the date of filing the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE VI. CORPORATE SEAL

The official seal of this corporation shall consist of a circle around the inside of which shall be, THE NORTH-END AMUSEMENT COMPANY, and in the center of the circle, INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEBRASKA.

ARTICLE VII. OFFICERS AND STOCKHOLDERS

The officers of this corporation shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, of which offices the Secretary and Treasurer may be filled by one person, and the affairs of the corporation shall be conducted by a Board of not less than three nor more than five persons to be selected by the Directors at their first stockholders' meeting after the filing of the Articles of Incorporation, and such Directors shall hold their office until the first meeting in January, 1919, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The officers of the corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors and in case of vacancy in the Board either by death, resignation or otherwise, the remaining Directors shall have power to fill such vacancy until the next annual meeting of the stockholders. No person shall be an officer or Director of this corporation who is not a stockholder of said company.

ARTICLE VIII. ANNUAL MEETINGS

The annual meetings of the stockholders of this corporation shall be held at its office in Omaha, Douglas County, Nebraska, on the first Monday in January of each year.

ARTICLE IX. INDEBTEDNESS

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability that this corporation is subject to shall not at any one time exceed two-thirds of the capital stock.

ARTICLE X. AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended in such respects as are allowed by law at any regular meeting held annually by the stockholders of the corporation by a four-fifths vote of the stock then outstanding and entitled to vote at such meeting. A notice of the proposed amendment, however, shall be served upon each and every stockholder of the corporation at least thirty days prior to the date of such meeting.

ARTICLE XIII. AFFAIRS OF THE CORPORATION

The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted in accordance with the By-Laws of this corporation.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 5th day of September, 1918.
