Pastor Has Twelve Sons In Army Service

Father Is Conducting Red Cross Chapter; Another Son Going.

Bayville, La., Oct. 3.—Twelve sons in active service out of a family of nineteen sons and one daughter is the record of R. H. Winslow, Negro Baptist preacher, conducting a Red Cross auxiliary for the Richard Parish chapter.

Born in Montgomery, Ala., 67 years ago, Winslow has been living in Louisiana for more than fifteen years. Besides having contributed twelve sons to the army Winslow owns three Liberty bonds and is personally interested in war work in his community. Eight of his sons enlisted before the passage of the draft law, while the other four were drafted. His thirteenth son is eagerly waiting for the day when he will be of age to enlist. Of those in the army four are twins and three are triplets.

Fred E. Hamlin, director of the publicity bureau of the gulf division of the American Red Cross, says that plans are under way for a public demonstration in honor of Winslow and the presentation of a twelve-star service pin to the proud father.

Winslow has received a personal letter from President Wilson complimenting him on his record.

WINS A NATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHIC PRIZE

In a recent photographic contest by a Rochester, N. Y., photographic manufacturing concern, the first prize of $500 was awarded to Arthur Winston of Appalachicola, Fla. The firm sent a representative to that city to deliver the prize money and found the winner to be a 14-year-old Negro schoolboy. He had practiced photography during his idle hours until he had become an expert in the use of the camera, and the pictures he had sent to the prize competition, when judged with others sent from all portions of the United States, Canada, Mexico and far-away Australia, proved to be the best. The pictures were pastoral scenes. The boy will use the prize money educating himself.
