Among the Churches

MOUNT MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor. We had outdoor services last Sunday, morning and night, with splendid results. If our churches are at liberty to open their doors Sunday we are expecting a heavy rush at all services, and there will be the old time covenant in the morning and communion at night, right hand of fellowship to new members, by baptism and grace experience.

We hope all our states' captains will come representing their states with splendid reports, looking to the close of our coming rally the 24th of November.

We begin our cottage prayer meetings the 28th of this month. The places of these meetings will be: Brother H. L. Anderson's, 2914 Lake street; Brother W. B. Long's, 2517 Lake street; Mrs. B. Thomas, 1826 North Twenty-third street; Brother C. M. Simmons, 2228 Seward street; Brother George Smith, 2534 Hamilton, and Brother J. I. Cane, 2712 Parker street. Sunday night, the 3d, Rev. P.
