MRS. SARAH WALKER.

Monitor Manager Visits Lincoln and Says Business Is Good.

Space in this issue will not permit my saying what I would like concerning all the good things of Lincoln. However, it was my pleasure to attend Lebanon Lodge, No. 126, A., F. and A. M., one of the strongest and best working lodges not only in this jurisdiction but anywhere.

One thing quite noticeable was the fact that so many young men, as well as older ones, are interested in the higher and better things of life and doing such good work in Lebanon. I am looking for other good things out of Lebanon soon, which I shall report later. But watch, wait and listen.

One feature was the service flag with its six stars, a reminder that six of our number, with many other Lincoln boys, have gone to the front to represent us in Uncle Sam's great cause to make the world safe for democracy.

The various business men of Lincoln seem to be doing well, even in view of the fact so many have gone to the front. Merchants are advertising and getting results. Let us appreciate the invitations we have to visit such stores as Speier & Simon's, Mayer Bros., Armstrong's, and buy your coal of the Voss Coal company. Then tell them you saw their ad in The Monitor. It's there. Look it over. Then buy at these stores.

BERT PATRICK,

Business Manager of The Monitor.

Dr. Ernest Graves, the popular dentist, is building up a fine practice and is well liked by all for his efficient service.

The popular "flu" is making its call here and has caused all public places in the city to be closed for nearly a week. Many cases have been reported throughout the city.

Mrs. Major Moore of East O street has been very ill for some time.

Mr. Venerable is quite ill at this writing.

Dr. Moss reports thirty-seven cases of the "flu" on his list at one time; however, there have been no deaths.

Mrs. Sarah Walker returned home after a very pleasant two weeks' visit at Omaha.

Bertrand Patrick, jr., is in the city visiting his aunts and uncle on Holdrege street.

Mr. James Walker has returned to the city from Denver, where he spent a pleasant time.

You can always buy The Monitor at the Dunbar cafe. Get one each week.

COLONEL FRANKLIN A. DENNISON MAKES FINE SPEECH AT DES MOINES

Des Moines, Ia.—Colonel Franklin A. Dennison, the highest ranking Colored officer in the United States army and commander of the 370th infantry (Colored), addressed one of the largest gatherings ever seen at the new A. M. E. church here Thursday night, September 25.

The meeting was a strong boost for the fourth Liberty loan drive. Colonel Dennison's talk gave great weight, for he has just returned from the front and he has much information to give out.

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.

Out-of-town guests at the Perkins' cottage, 418 East Cuchorras street: Miss Effie Lee McGrath of Friar's Point, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hayes of New York City; Mr. Melvin Osborne of Denver, and Mr. T. D. Bowie, Boley, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hayes of New York have leased Mr. Frank Loper's private cottage at 701 North Royer street. Mr. Hayes, a former postal clerk of New York City, has been transferred to the Colorado Springs postoffice as city letter carrier. Mr. Hayes is well known in newspaper circles in the east and south as a writer.

Miss Effie Lee McGrath has been confined to bed for some days with nervous breakdown, but expected to be out in a few days. Miss McGrath is a former student of Alcorn college, Alcorn, Miss.

Mr. Melvin Osborne, a student at Colorado college here at the Springs, is now waiting to be called to the students' army training corps at the college.

Mrs. Ferguson, who has been confined to bed for about ten months, is able to be up and her friends at Colorado Springs welcome her again.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loper of 701 North Royer street expect to leave for Muskogee, Okla., for the winter. Mr. Loper is well known to every one who has visited the Springs and to all newspaper men of the race.

The churches and schools, also all public places, are closed on account of the "flu."

Colorado Springs has a Colored population of more than one thousand. Many are in business for themselves and many have good positions. It is gratifying also to note the many cottages owned by race men and women, which conclusively shows their foresight and progress. The city is "dry." Enough said. Climate can't be beaten.

ATCHISON, KANSAS

John Smith and Miss Ada Hatcher went to St. Joseph Monday and were married. They are living at their home, 1116 Oak street, Atchison. We wish them much success.

Clarence Nunn received word from his brother Richard of Denver that he had been very sick and would come to Atchison, his former home, as soon as he was able to travel.

Mrs. Jessie Miller returned home Monday, after a pleasant visit with her children in Denver and Omaha.

Mrs. Emma Dysert is very low at the residence of her mother on North Ninth street.

Henry Clay Wiley and wife of St. Joseph are visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. Jane Johnson.

Mrs. Lulu Potter returned home Saturday from Denver, where she has been visiting friends.

A prominent church was sold Monday for taxes at the courthouse. A brother in the audience, who has had some church troubles, took advantage of an opportunity and bought it. Now it is said if he is successful in getting a pastor he will issue invitations to those he wants to attend his services. Your time will expire pretty soon. Come and renew your subscription.

Sam Overstreet is convalescent. He has been in the hospital for two weeks.

PALESTINE, TEXAS

A. G. Howard, Agent

Things are looking very sad in this holy city now for all the schools are closed and the churches are all at a standstill and no places of amusement to go to all on account of the Spanish influenza. Quite a number of cases are reported in the town and country and so the town looks like a funeral, but the good Lord will take care of the situation.

Mrs. S. T. Williamson, who was reported very ill in last week's issue, died on Wednesday and was buried on Sunday.

Mrs. Hannah Winn died last Thursday in Austin at the insane asylum, and her husband, Mr. Henry Winn went down there on Saturday to see if he could bring the body back to Palestine for burial.

Sick list for this week: Mrs. Mary Jones, Mrs. Queen Wilson, Mrs. Hattie Smith, Mrs. Zethroe Porter, Mrs. Irena Calwell, Miss Odessie Bridges, Miss Gennever Bridges, Miss Anna B. Taylor.

Dr. J. H. Dood has been a busy man all the week, and Dr. W. R. Roberts is on the job again. He has been off for awhile after he got shot in the arm, but is getting around again.

We regret to say that the churches had no services Sunday. This is the first time since the writer has been in this town.

We are having some rain today. A splendid season now and the turnips are growing very fast.

The Fourth Liberty Bond made a drive here last week and went over the top. Anderson county will do its part any old time for it is a fine farming country and well populated with good people and you may expect good results when she starts.
