

G. R. Kinney Co.

Incorporated

"Shoes for the Entire Family"

207-209-211 North 16th St. Hotel Loyal Building.

Shoes are high priced. Everybody says they are, but the Kinney stores are able to solve the footwear problem. By large purchases from the largest shoe factories in the world, by fast turnover, quick sale, a small profit on each pair of shoes, we are able to turn out dependable, stylish footwear at one-third of the prices asked by other stores.

the public to accept as an explanation of his REAL attitude as regards woman suffrage and the Negroes' right to the ballot. But I will say here that Mr. Mullen's answer is far from satisfactory to my people for it smacks of true Southern democracy, an echo of state's rights, with the white man up and the Negro down. The article given in another column, the last line of which proves my right to the above thought, is as follows: "That the Southern states are justified in imposing educational or property requirements, so as to limit the franchise." That's right, Arthur, be a good democrat and stick with your solid South, so we will know just who and what you are.

J. H. Bulla, candidate for state representative for re-election, has served two terms and is a staunch friend and lawmaker for the Colored people. He is a member of the Stock exchange and one of the largest stock dealers in the west. He would appreciate a good vote from the Colored people.
