"THE MONITOR IN THE HOME OF EVERY COLORED FAMILY IN OMAHA BY JANUARY FIRST." Help put it there. Is your neighbor a subscriber?

LA GRANGE, TEXAS

H. L. Vincent, Agent

Rev. G. L. Mills, P. C. of A. M. E. church here, and at Bethlehem Community, left last Tuesday for Somerville, Tex., to attend the A. M. E. annual conference.

Rev. Geo. A. Drisdale, Weimar, passed through the city last Friday en route to Smithville, where his church, New Flower Hill, entertained the Foreign Mission Board, December 4.

Rev. Thomas Franklin, Muldoon, was in town last Friday and left his subscription for the Monitor for six months.

The Monitor contains information that no man whether he reads for self information or whose work is to teach and edify the people can justly afford to be without. See the agent and let him talk to you about it.

Miss Delphine Oakes, Elliott May Dobbin and Mary L. Price are young teachers who read The Monitor each week.

Saturday was pay day for the Fayette county Colored teachers, and though it was cold many were in town.

Mr. Ike Blacker and wife as visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Rev. D. F. Vance of Oakland, passed through the city Thanksgiving day en route home from Austin.

Mr. Ishmael Anderson lost his only daughter last week by death.

Rev. S. A. Tillman preached at Eagle Lake Sunday.

Not a bell was rung at any of the Negro churches for Thanksgiving services last Thursday. It is sad reflection on us who claim to have a monopoly on religion. The white people held union services.

The following places went over the top on the war work campaign: Winchester, Muldoon, Plum, West Point, Rabbs Prairie, Round Top, Fayetteville, La Grange, Holman, Ammansville.

FREMONT, NEB.

The transformation of our stock necessitates rapid stock reduction. Our lease on the adjoining 50-foot building now occupied by the R. & G. Dry Goods store starts this Jan. 1, 1919. Hence this sale now—before Xmas to enable us to accomplish our aim. The walls between the two buildings must be cut down, elevators moved, etc. But first of all stocks must be cut to enable us to operate. The addition of 30,000 square feet of floor space will give the much needed room to allow better display of our merchandise and relieve congestion in our growing departments.
