NEBRASKA GUARD SHOULD HAVE COLORED BATTALION

Governor McKelvie has asked for two regiments of Nebraska National Guards. At least one battalion of these regiments should be Colored.
Omaha can easily furnish one battalion of splendid well trained Colored soldiers, many of whom are returning from overseas, and others who have been at the several cantonments.
Omaha can furnish, too, a full complement of officers. Membership in the Nebraska National guards will continue the beneficial results of the training that these men have received and help them in their good citizenship. Let Nebraska fall in line with New York, Connecticut, Illinois, and other states and muster into the National guard a Colored battalion, if not a regiment.

SURPRISE PASTOR: PRESENT PURSE

St. Philip's Congregation Remember Their Priest's Birthday Anniversary.

Friday, February 28, was the fifty-third birthday anniversary of the Rev.
John Albert Williams, pastor of St.
Philip's Episcopal church. As Episcopalians are taught to observe "all Fridays in the year as days of abstinence," which includes social functions and festivities, the congregation planned to celebrate the event on Thursday night. Despite the fact that the weather was very cold, a large number assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hicks shortly after 8 o'clock, from which rendezvous they descended in a body on the rectory, taking Father Williams completely by surprise. They brought with them a large birthday cake, decorated with the appropriate number of candles, and other refreshments. After a pleasant evening spent in games and music refreshments were served and Mrs. James G. Jewell, president of the Woman's Auxiliary, the organization which had planned the affair, in a neat speech presented the pastor with a purse of $55 as a gift from the congregation, "one dollar for each of your fifty-three years and two to grow on."
