ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH NEWS
Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor

Large audiences attended both morning and evening services. The pastor preaching two timely and needful sermons. In addition to the splendid preaching services, Mrs. Taylor, the gospel singer, employed during the series of revival meetings that are now being conducted, touched both the hearts of all with her sermons in song.

There were nine persons added to the church on Sunday.

The collections for the week were $315.48. The trustees collection for Sunday was $100.48.

The S. S. is still manifesting the spirit that a school of its size should show. The attendance is large and the collection is in keeping. The collection for Sunday was $10.82.

Mrs. W. C. Williams was ill on Sunday and unable to be out; also Mr.
Geo. Ashby and Mrs. Mildred Campbell.

St. John's was pleased to have worship with her on Sunday morning several of the returned soldier boys and one officer. Among them were Sergeant Earl Wheeler and Lieut. Madison, who made a few interesting remarks on behalf of the soldier boys present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jackson will move into their beautiful new home soon at 3210 Emmet street.

CORINNE THOMAS.

FITS UP COMMODIOUS DOWN TOWN HALL

J. H. Broomfield has leased the entire building on South Fourteenth street between Dodge and Douglas in which the People's Drug store is located and has fitted up the third story as an attractive, commodious and well appointed hall. Many years ago this hall was quite popular as a lodge room and a place for public entertainments. Mr. Broomfield has had many improvements made. The entire interior of the building has been renovated, painted and most artistically decorated. A new floor has been laid so smooth and attractive that it invites the dancer. The hall has convenient cloak rooms, dressing and rest rooms and the usual conveniences of a well-appointed public hall. The main hall is about sixty feet square. Mr. Broomfield has not yet named the hall and requests through The Monitor the public to suggest an appropriate name.

AN APPEAL

An Opportunity for the Negroes of Omaha to Co-operate.

For what? To finish the main auditorium, beginning June -, this year.
Dr. Ray E. York, superintendent of state missions, spent the Lord's day with this church and helped to work out a plan for the money.

The church members and Negroes of Omaha are to raise $10,000 cash on deposit by May 18. A select committee of white citizens has consented to give and indorse the work for $10,- 000 among the white people of the city, which will complete to the credit of the race, this much needed building.

Sunday, March 23, was the 6th anniversary since the tornado destroyed this church. The congregation has raised and paid already more than $20,000 on the present building. We hope at least to have 5,000 Negro citizens to give from one dollar up.

Look and wait for the grand musical at Zion Baptist church, April 7th.—Adv. 2t
