THE COLORED MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Colored Ministerial Association of Omaha and vicinity holds interesting meetings weekly on Tuesday at Zion Baptist church for the discussion of common problems confronting them in their religious work.

MASS MEETING ENTHUSIASTIC FOR Y. M. C. A.

Zion Baptist church was filled to overflowing Sunday afternoon March 30 at 4 o'clock when the N. A. A. C. P. forum was called to order by the president, the Rev. John Albert Williams. Routine business was rapidly dispatched, after which the forum was resolved into a mass meeting to discuss the proposed Y. M. C. A. The Rev. M. H. Wilkinson was master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers, confining them strictly to the time limit. Musical selections were given by the Omaha Choral club. The speakers who presented the need of a Y. M. C. A. were J. L. Jones, Jno. W. Long, the Rev. Thomas A. Taggart, Mr. Flowers, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A.; the Rev. John Albert Williams, H. L. Anderson, the Rev. W. C. Williams and Mr. Mussulman, state secretary. The sentiment expressed by all was unanimous as to the need of such an institution for our young men. Mr. Flowers gave a brief resume of the history of the Y. M. C. A. and an explanation of its purpose and scope of work. Mr. Mussulman laid down some plain facts and principles to be faced and clearly understood before the movement is launched. A resolution was adopted recommending the appointment of a committee of five to confer with the local Y. M. C. A. as to plans for campaign.

PHI DELTA NEWS

The Phi Delta's held their first meeting in March at the residence of Mrs. George Blair, 2722 Corby street. A literature program-cmfwyp cmfwy

A literary program was the main feature of the evening. The Misses Brown and Middleton gave some interesting talks on "Dunbar." March 26, 1919, the meeting was held at the home of the Misses Jones, 2811 Caldwell street.

The Phi Deltas have admitted Miss Madree Penn into the sorority. A very brilliant addition indeed.

Mrs. Frances Peoples, an ex-president of the sorority, has been appointed guardian of the Camp Fire Girls, an organization composed of young high school girls.

INVESTORS

Our time is devoted to sales and upkeep of property and real estate is not a side line with us. So that is why you can always get a square deal. Because we are in the real estate business only and you take no chance with us. Nimrod Johnson, Webster 1302.

INTERESTING MEETING OF WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Friday afternoon March 28 St. Philip's Episcopal church was comfortably filled by delegations from the various Episcopal church of the city for the monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary. The opening service was said by the Rev. John Albert Williams. Mrs. T. H. Tracy, of St. Barnabas' parish, diocesan president, presided. A large amount of routine business was rapidly dispatched, at the conclusion of which Mrs. James G. Jewell, president of St. Philip's branch was called to the chair and took charge of the program for which St. Philip's was responsible. Mrs. A. D. James read an excellent paper on "Woman's Place in Missionary Work;" the vicar made a brief address on "Church Work Among Colored People in the Province of the Northwest;" and C. B. Hosmer, field secretary of Tuskegee, gave an admirable talk on "Educational Needs of the Southland and How Tuskegee is Meeting This Need."

DR. CLARENCE SINGLETON PURCHASES AN OAKLAND

Dr. Clarence H. Singleton, one of our most proficient dentists—of which Omaha proudly boasts of three, the other two being Drs. Morris and Sawyer—has just purchased a fine Oakland five-passenger touring car from the Marsh-Oakland company, Twentieth and Harney streets. The doctor is so well pleased with his Oakland Sensible Six, that he is trying to get all his friends who have auto-itis, and that is the auto-owning fever, to purchase an Oakland.
