

Lincoln Department

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Easter at the A. M. E. church, 5th and C streets, at 7:30 p. m., when Mr. J. E. Jeltz and Miss Ethel Valusette were united in holy matrimony.

The bride looked very handsome in her wedding gown of white Duchess satin and Georgette. She wore slippers of the same color and carried a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas.

The bridesmaid was Mrs. Amena Marshall, who wore a pretty costume of blue georgette and satin. She also wore a large corsage bouquet of sweet peas.

The groom was attired in the conventional black and was attended by Mr. James Bedell, who wore the same. The happy couple will reside in Lincoln.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony the members of the choir, under the direction of Mrs. G. L. Flippen ascended from the basement of the church and marched up the aisles to the rostrum, which was beautifully decorated, chanting an anthem.

The church was a scene of picturesque beauty. At either end of the rostrum an archway of lilies was formed, with a huge Easter bell suspended from each one. In the center a cross was erected which was also adorned with lilies.

Upon the wall back of the cross in huge letters were the words, "He is risen." From among the palms, Easter lilies and green and white decorations, the choir rendered a cantata, which met with the approval of all, with Mrs. G. L. Flippen as director, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Dorothy Flippen at the piano and Mr. James Walker at the organ.

A lovely reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jeltz Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Moore, 2148 South 8th street. Many beautiful and yet serviceable gifts were received.

Revival services are being conducted at the A. M. E. church, 9th and C streets, each evening, by Mrs. M. C. Harris, evangelist. These meetings are nondenominational and every one is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Frank Harrison, who recently spent a winter south, addressed a meeting of the N. A. A. C. P. last Friday at Masonic hall.

All efforts are being put forth to make the membership drive of the N. A. A. C. P. a successful one. Lincoln's quota is placed at 400. The committee on the membership drive have chosen the following captains: Messdames Charles Haynes, L. P. Gates, Lewis Holmes, Henry Crews, Sarah Walker, Margaret Williams, Ellen Corneal and Mary McCurley; Messrs. R. H. Hueston, Luther Allen, J. E. Jeltz, Henry Crews and David Nichols.

A handsome prize will be given the lady and also the gentleman captain, who secures the most members.

At the last meeting of the N. A. A. C. P., when a reception was tendered the returned soldiers, a plea was made in the interest of a community center, a Colored Y. M. C. A. to be built here. Following this plea $480 was subscribed toward the purchase of a lot.

COUNCIL BLUFFS NEWS

Rev. J. P. Jackson, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, reports a grand Easter service. He filled his pulpit at 11 a. m. and preached on "Easter and the Duty of It" to a well filled house. We had our Easter program at night to a full house which was enjoyed by all.

We are ready to start plastering our church, so it was reported to the pastor by Mr. Payne. The Baptist people, who are laboring under the leadership of Rev. J. P. Jackson, and all the people of the city are thankful to God for such a church, for it is a credit to the city.

Rev. Mr. Jackson will baptize Sunday afternoon at the Sixth Street Baptist church.

We are glad to say the Lord is blessing our sick people. They are better.

There was a good time all the way for God Sunday. Collection good.

The Rev. J. H. Ferrabee, D. D., presiding elder of the Des Moines district, will hold his third quarterly conference at Bethel A. M. E. church, Avenue A and Sixteenth street, April 27th.

The District Conference and Sunday School convention will convene at Bethel A. M. E. church June 3.

Wednesday afternoon the Pastor's Aid met at the parsonage with sixteen ladies present, and are preparing to have their pleasant Sunday program the last Sunday night in each month.

Mrs. Corrine White and Mrs. Gertrude B. Rhonenee pleasantly entertained the Church Aid, with eighteen ladies present. The Aid is prospering. Our president, Mrs. L. Payne, is doing a great work in preparing their bazaar, which will be held the second week in May. We earnestly plead for all ladies to be present at all meetings. Rev. Rhonenee, our pastor, gave a short talk to the Aid, which was appreciated by all. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Martha Herndon, 2032 Eighth avenue.

Mrs. A. C. Stewart gave the play of the Old Maids' club at the Masonic hall on Thursday night of last week. Every one reported a good time. This play was given for the building funds of the church. Mrs. A. C. Stewart presented $35.85 to the building committee on Sunday night, and all the money isn't in yet.

Our Easter service was grand. The Rev. Mr. Rhonenee preached on "Easter." The church was crowded and seven were baptized. Mrs. Minnie Ferndon, superintendent of the Sunday school, had charge of the program. Our Easter program was beautiful and the morning choir came out for the first time in their new robes. The morning choir is doing fine under the leadership of Miss Ethel Richardson, president. Mrs. Eva Besse is our pianist for both choirs.

Mr. Andrew Fletcher had a painful accident last Friday by something falling upon him at the Union Pacific roundhouse.

Miss Esta Myers is very ill at the Edmondson hospital.

Mrs. Teal is much better at this writing.

Rev. and Mrs. A. Gamble's sister and brother-in-law were present with them at our Easter services at the Bethel church Sunday.

The church was so well pleased to see Brother R. V. Robertson of 2425 Fifth avenue out. He has been sick about two years with a paralytic stroke.

At the program Sunday night the Sunday school superintendent and teachers had a feast for the children in the basement and served them ice cream.

Rev. Mr. Broadnax of Omaha will preach at Bethel A. M. E. church April 27, which is our third quarterly meeting. Rev. W. C. Williams will also be present and congregations will be with them.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. P. Jackson, Pastor.

The members and pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church are rejoicing over the success of the rallies which closed last Sunday night, with a total collection of $746.99.

The Alderman clubs, which consist of three wards, with Mrs. Mary Turner president of the Second ward, Mr. Fields president of the First ward and Mrs. Mary Morton president of the Third ward, raised a total of $549.82. The Palm Leaf club, with Mrs. Mixson president, raised $140.47. The good women of this club have worked early and late to make the club a success and many thanks do we give them.

The Window club, Mr. Joseph Reese chairman, which is composed of the leading young men of our city, gave a musical concert last Thursday night, April 10, and raised $56.70. The boys did fine. They played to a crowded house and every one reports an enjoyable evening. We do hope the boys will go over the top again, and some day we hope to see the leading young men members of our church.

The plasterers are now ready to begin plastering the interior of the new church.

Rev. J. P. Jackson is in favor of the Colored Masonic lodges buying a hall and is a good booster for everything which will help to uplift the race.

The young men of Council Bluffs donated a beautiful stained glass window, for which the glass alone cost $80, to the church.

Mrs. Aileen Wade, president of the Sunday school, will have an Easter program Sunday.

John Eastman was taken to Clarinda, Ia., last Thursday for treatment.

April 27 Rev. J. P. Jackson will baptize thirteen converts at the First Baptist church, Willow avenue and Sixth street.

The Mission Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Bottoms, 2406 South Sixteenth street, next Friday afternoon.

The Palm club will hold its weekly meeting at Mrs. Emaline Walker's home, 2504 Third avenue, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. George Manual, clerk.
