

Among the Churches

ST. PHILIP'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Rev. John Albert Williams, Rector.

Several members of the Junior Auxiliary attended the annual meeting of the various diocesan chapters at All Saints' church last Saturday afternoon. A congregational meeting was held at the close of the morning service last Sunday, at which the treasurer's report for the eight months ending January 1, the end of the new fiscal year, was read and officers were elected. A supplemental verbal report was given for the month ending May 1. The report showed all obligations met. By resolution the pastor's salary was increased by $25 a month. The following officers were elected: Wardens, E. W. Pryor and Augustus Hicks; treasurer, Dr. Craig Morris; secretary, Miss Jennie Robinson; committee, Henry W. Black, Charles H. Hicks, David Morris and Mrs. Sina Brown.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. T. A. Taggart, Pastor.

The sermon topic at 8 o'clock will be, "Watchman, What of the Night?" In this connection the following thoughts are suggested: While the Christian stands on the walls of Zion and looks down from its spiritual heights he sees a great multitude going rapidly in every direction, but all on the downward road. If we loved as we should, the spirit of love from our hearts would ever stand before God in tears, weeping as did Christ over Jerusalem, and as we wept we might hear the voice of God crying, "Watchman, what of the night?" Then would our answer be, "Oh, God, the night is dark and the people are stumbling and need Thy light." The Mission Circle met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Whidby, 2917 R street.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.

Good services all day, with a large congregation both morning and evening, were held at the church on last Sunday.

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson preached the annual sermon of the Grand United Order of Oddfellows and the Sisters of the Household of Ruth, which was held at Grove M. E. church Sunday afternoon. Although called upon at the spur of the moment, he delivered a wonderful sermon. His subject was, "Brotherly Love."

The Silver Leaf club met Tuesday evening, May 13, at the residence of Mrs. George Smith, 2534 Hamilton street. Quite a number were present and a delightful evening was spent.

The Junior Progressive club met Thursday evening, May 8, with Mrs. Mary James, 1809 North Twenty-third street. After a brief business meeting refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Kennedy's home, Twenty-third and Grace streets.

The Swastika Art club met with Mrs. L. Thomas, Thirty-first and Burdette streets. Many visitors were present and two new members were added to the club. The third bazaar will be held the middle of June.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor.

Sunday was Quarterly Conference and large crowds were in evidence. There were twelve persons added to the church.

The collection for the week was $632.06.

Sunday will be Women's day. The services throughout the day will be conducted by the women exclusively. Every one is welcome.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. W. F. Botts, Pastor.

This is the last appeal for the necessary $10,000. Sunday is the final day. All who have Gleaners or books of any description are urgently asked to report all money between now and Sunday.

There will be preaching at 11 a. m. and in the afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock, that all sister churches of the city and friends at large may attend and give such assistance as they may desire.

Dr. J. Lewis of Kansas City will assist the pastor throughout the day.

Come one, come all, and help us go over the top.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. John Costello, Pastor.

Next Sunday there will be baptizing at Carter lake at 2 o'clock. There are nineteen candidates for baptism. Special cars will leave Twenty-fourth and Paul streets promptly at 1 o'clock. Fare for the round trip, 10 cents.

Services were well attended and inspiring last Sunday. The collections were $53. You are welcome to our services.

PILGRIM REST BAPTIST CHURCH
The Mission Circle meets every Monday evening.

Large congregations were present Sunday at all services and everybody seemed to enjoy Mothers' day. Sunday morning the pastor's theme was, "What Sin Does For Men." The evening topic was, "The Power of Prayer." Several members were added and the collections were large. Strangers are always welcome.

TWIN CITY MASONS MEET
Twin City Masonic lodge of Council Bluffs held their regular meeting on Thursday night, May 8, for work in the first degree. Regular meeting second and fourth Thursdays in every month. Walter H. Herndon, worshipful master; Isaac J. Caldwell, past master; W. C. Lyons, secretary.

PALESTINE, TEXAS
A. G. Howard, Agent.

We are having some good rains in this part of the country and it is acceptable, for the farmers had begun to need it.

All the churches had good services on Sunday. The West Union Baptist church, Pilgrim's Rest Baptist church and Mount Vernon A. M. E. church are running revivals and all of them are having good crowds. The Rev. A. L. Boone of Fort Worth is here preaching at West Union Baptist church and he is stirring things up.

South Union Baptist, Mount Vernon A. M. E., St. Paul's M. E. and Cartrel chapel, C. M. E. church, had excellent services Sunday.

Mrs. M. E. Watley, popular undertaker of Henderson, was a recent visitor to the office of L. H. Bland, undertaker at this place.

H. F. Arnold, representative of the Indianapolis Ledger, was in the city last week looking after his paper's interests, and he made things bounce while here.

Attorney S. J. Williamson went to Malaco recently and has returned.

Smallpox is still here. Mrs. Fannie Howard died with it Monday; Austin Simmons died last Friday and Mrs. Leatha Rodgers died Saturday and Undertaker Bland went out to take care of the body.

HASTINGS, NEBRASKA

Mrs. Clarence Daugherty, who has been on our sick list, is somewhat better at this writing.

James McKinzie has filed a petition in district court asking for a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Velma McKinzie.

C. E. Briscoe, Arthur Horton, James Goode and James McKinzie went to Lincoln Saturday morning, where they were taken into the Degree of Shrines. They were accompanied by John Huff and J. S. Craig.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Wythe Walker and daughter Judy, Mrs. R. L. Moore and Mr. Chas. Harris motored to Grand Island Sunday evening.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA

Tabernacle church services last Sunday were good all day. Morning worship the pastor preached from Revelations iii:12, "The Conqueror's Reward." At the evening service the choir rendered splendid music suitable to Mother's day. The pastor preached an inspiring sermon from the text in John ii:5, "The Faith of Our Mothers," and made a lasting impression on the congregation. The mothers were made to see as they never saw before.

The new church was plastered last week. This week will finish all the inside work.

The Palm club met with Mrs. D. Bottoms last week. This week they will meet with Mrs. Alexander on Fifteenth street and Ninth avenue.

The Pastor's Coronation club met with Mrs. Harrington, Twenty-first street and Eighth avenue. They will meet this week with Mrs. Harkins, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, on Avenue A.

The Mission Circle met last week with Mrs. J. P. Jackson. This week they will meet with Mrs. Kennard, on Fourteenth street and Eighth avenue. All are cordially invited to attend this circle every Friday afternoon.

Mr. William Graham and son are in the city, looking for a place to locate. They came from Missouri.

Mrs. Rostum, who has been on the sick list, is much improved. Mr. Anderson, living on South Twelfth street, is still in the Jennie Edminston hospital.

Miss Katie Tuddle, who has been confined to her room for the last two weeks, is much better at this writing.

A special meeting of the officers of the Tabernacle church was called for Monday night.

The soldiers are preparing to give a fine entertainment for the building fund of the Tabernacle church in the near future. Mr. Strother is chairman. The Palm club had to postpone its intended bazaar until May 22.

The nail driving rally is progressing nicely.

Pleasant Green pastor and people will come over on the afternoon of May 25 to help push this rally.

Rev. Mr. Broadnax and his good people are invited over on the afternoon of June 1.

COUNCIL BLUFFS
A. M. E. CHURCH NEWS

Sunday, May 11, was a glorious day at Bethel A. M. E. church. At 11 o'clock Rev. M. Rhonene had for his subject, "Mother," and preached a soul-stirring sermon. At 8 o'clock the Pastor's Aid put on a grand Mother's day program and God wonderfully blessed us by adding to the church two new members, Rev. Robert Ewing of Denver, and Mrs. E. F. Harris, an evangelist.

Don't forget the date of the bazaar at Bethel A. M. E. church, 21st and 22d of this month.

The Church Aid met at the residence of Mrs. Ellen Rodriguez, 1230 Seventh avenue, with twenty-six ladies present, all enjoying themselves. A dainty repast was served. Adjourned to meet at Mrs. Baker's May 16.

We expect to start building soon. Nos. 1 and 2 Stewardess Board will give a grand entertainment the last week in every month. Date will be given later.

We are thankful for the strangers that are coming to our city. We also thank God for the interest they are taking in the church.

Brother R. V. Robertson was taken suddenly ill on the 13th, but is much improved at this writing.

Think in interest.

A Crying Need.

"There art to be a school here for training young footpads," said Sandstorm Smith, the well-known cattle baron of Rampage, Okla., who is temporarily in Kansas City's midst. "After having grown accustomed to the regular fashions in such functions it pesters me to be fooled with by ignorant amateurs. Half of the time, with their jiggling and stuttering, I don't know whether they are trying to hold me up or act out some sort of a charade."—Kansas City Star.
