ANNOUNCEMENT

Having successfully completed the state board of examinations for licensed embalmers and funeral directors, Mr. Silas Johnson, of the Western Funeral Home, announces to the public his further future quality service and the same moderate prices.

Mr. Johnson has been a resident of Omaha for the past 30 years—he is widely known in the city, and his honest fidelity and integrity in his dealings with the public is impeachable by none.

The funeral home and mortuary is ideally located and is conveniently situated on two car lines; the edifice is artistically placed back on a beautiful, well-kept lawn with flower beds, shrubbery and shade trees, and is the last word in architectural concession and construction. Mrs. Johnson with her personality and untiring efforts, adds largely to the efficiency of the institution—Mrs. Johnson is present at all services.

We are here to better serve the public. Our motto: "Quality service and moderate prices." Silas Johnson's Western Funeral Home, open day and night, 2518 Lake street. Telephone Webster 248.

MRS. W. C. CRAIG GIVEN A SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. W. C. Craig of 2320 North 27th street was pleasantly surprised by her husband and the Wide Awake club of the Zion Baptist church last Monday night at their palatial home. The affair was engineered by Mrs. Leola Marshall, Mrs. F. K. Stone, and Mrs. Maude Scott.

Those present were Mrs. J. Fletcher, Mrs. S. King, Mrs. Ed Turner, Mrs. May Stewart, Mrs. Goler Brown, Mrs. Maggie McGown, Mrs. Grace Flannigan, Mrs. Maggie Moore, Mrs. Carrie Robinson, Mrs. Olivia Curtly, Mrs. Robt. Reeves, Mrs. J. H. P. H. Jenkins, the Barber

My shop stands on its merits for what is right, and what the people demand, with first class barbers, who know their business. I have added one more chair to my shop, in order to take care of the increase in my business. The Colored people are growing and improving and we must meet their demands. They want the best and we must deliver it. I have it for you, so come. I solicit your patronage. There is no pool hall connected with my business. Barbers are: Mr. W. Bruce, Mr. H. Bascom, Mr. J. T. Thompson, Mr. J. Reddie, Mr. Ted Carman—all first class hair cutters. I have in connection soda fountain and ice cream parlor, with Mrs. Edith Whitney, soda dispenser and manager. Webster 2095.
