ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH CLUB GIVES DANCING PARTY

St. Philip's Church club, which has for its purpose a more frequent getting together of the congregation socially, gave a delightful dancing party Monday night at the Hanscom park pavilion. Mesdames Riggs, Donley, Gregory and James were the hostesses for the occasion. About ninety members of the congregation enjoyed a delightful evening.

ATTENTION

The O. N. E. club has arranged a program and lecture to be given by the following ladies: Mrs. J. Snowden Porter of Chicago, president of the Northwestern Federation of Colored Women's clubs; Mrs. Eliza Johnson, president of the Phyllis Wheatly Home, Chicago; Mrs. Myra Hunter Reed, president of the Young Matron Culture club, Chicago; Mrs. Martha Welton, president of Chicago Federated Colored Women's clubs.

Every body invited. Ladies especially. No admission. Friday, July 25, at St. John's A. M. E. church.

CAMP FIRE NOTES

The Ocowasin lawn social, which was given Tuesday, July 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown was an overwhelming success.

Pop, ice cream, cake and candy which were furnished and made by the Camp Fire girls were sold at booths designed by them.

Dancing, music, games and grab-bag furnished amusement for all. The affair was well attended by old and young.

All of the girls worked hard selling tickets, designing posters, hanging lanterns and selling at the booths to earn their honor beads. The money received will be used for ceremonial gowns.

A business meeting was held Friday, July 11, at the Camp Fire room. The girls decided to have their first council fire or ceremonial meeting Thursday evening at Elmwood park.

Do you know where Patrick Blondo is? Blondo is one block south. Finkenstein's first class groceries and meat market is located at 26th and Blondo. Telephone number is Webster 1902, and don't forget.

P. H. Jenkins, the Barber

My shop stands on its merits for what is right, and what the people demand, with first class barbers, who know their business. I have added one more chair to my shop, in order to take care of the increase in my business. The Colored people are growing and improving and we must meet their demands. They want the best and we must deliver it. I have it for you, so come. I solicit your patronage. There is no pool hall connected with my business. Barbers are: Mr. W. Bruce, Mr. H. Bascom, Mr. J. T. Thompson, Mr. J. Reddic, Mr. Ted Carman—all first class hair cutters. I have in connection soda fountain and ice cream parlor, with Mrs. Edith Whitney, soda dispenser and manager. Webster 2095.
