street car at Twenty-fourth and Grant, where she had intended alighting to heavily inflicting a dangerous wound at the base of the brain. She was rushed into Williamson's drug store, across the street and she was attended by Dr. J. H. Hutton, who happened to be in the vicinity. Officer Noah Thomas, who was on hand to take care of the situation, called the am-

OWL CLUB PICNICS AT EAST OMAHA

The Owl club gave a picnic Sunday, August 3, at the Owl club's resort, East Omaha. The club has been disorganized because of the war, which called so many of the young men into service. It was a get-together outing for the club members, their wives and sweethearts, and being their first outing since the war, it was enjoyed by all who attended. The party met at Gordon's drug store, 24th and Burdette streets at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, where several automobiles awaited them. They proceeded at once to East Omaha, where it took some time to unload, because of the large number of baskets, that were run of dainty things to eat. The early part of the afternoon was spent in games, songs and kodaking. Mr.
Andrew Harrold delivered an address on "The Negro's Part in the War," which held the attention of everyone for one hour. He said that the Negroes were brave and courageous, conducting themselves as men regardless of some disadvantages. He said what the Negro needed most was "A plac to stand and they would move the world." The tables were set and many good things too numerous to mention were enjoyed by all. The party returned at 9:30 p. m. Miss Clyda Bradford, elocutionist, of Independence, Kas., was the honored guest.
She is here visiting Mr. and Mrs.
James Peoples, 3727 Miami street.

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR HASTINGS WOMAN

Dear Editor: I want to take up a little space in your wonderful paper.
I am a white woman, a true friend of the Colored race. I want to tell about a fine Colored woman, Mrs.
Fannie Briscoe. The Y. W. C. A. has her picture on all the slides in all the moving picture shows in town advertising her as the best cook in the state of Nebraska. Mrs. Briscoe is not only a fine cook, but she is polite and pleasant to deal with. She is the smartest Colored woman, neat and clean, and is a credit to her race. Mrs.
Briscoe conducts the cafeteria of the Y. W. C. A. and is head cook with six white women under her. She serves every day hundreds of people at a meal. The Y. W. C. A. is blessed to have one like her who takes an interest in her work. Thanking you very much. I remain as ever a true friend of the Colored race.
