ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. F. Botts, Pastor

Owing to the fact that it was somewhat cool last Sunday the crowd was a little late gathering for the basket meeting scheduled for the day, but toward noon as "Old Sol" began to show his smiling face, the crowd soon grew to more than expected number and the heavily laden baskets seemed to dispute the fact that any there had ever heard of the H. C. L. Lunch was served at 2 o'clock and no one was sent away without having been filled.

At 3 p. m. the congregation was called to order. When Rev. W. C. Williams of St. John's A. M. E. preached a soul-stirring sermon, very uplifting to all present.

At night the services were held as usual at the church.

Miss Hawkins is a girl reared without a mother, and for the short time in her young life is residing with Mrs. Roxy Williams. She has determined in spite of obstacles she must try to rise in the ranks of life and Mrs. Williams with friends are assisting her. An entertainment will be given in her behalf on Saturday, September 6 at Mrs. Williams' home on 26th and M streets. If you want to help your race and think you can do good send her something. For fear of not attending the entertainment, any amount will be highly appreciated. Send same to Bethel Baptist church, and she will thank you.

DEMobilIZATION OF ST. PHILIP'S SERVICE FLAG

An interesting and impressive service was held at the Church of St. Philip the Deacon last Sunday night at 8 o'clock when the service flag which contains fourteen stars was demobilized. All of St. Philip's boys but one, who is still in the navy, has returned. In his address Fr. Williams who had baptized as children nearly all the boys who had gone into service from this congregation, spoke of the splendid record made by them and was profoundly grateful that not one blue star had been turned to gold. He said that he did not think any other congregation anywhere in the country could make a relatively better showing than St. Philip's, which had to its credit four commissioned officers, one captain and three lieutenants; seven non-commissioned officers, six sergeants and one corporal, one first class private and two men in the navy.

An interesting address was given by Captain W. W. Peebles. Silver bars were pinned across the star of each returned soldier by relative or friend as his name was called. The Rev. Fr. Blaksley, locum tenens of St. Barnabas, and a commissioned chaplain was present and took part in the services.

All were glad to see them and both of them were happy as larks. All the sick are better. Mr. J. Jackson has been very sick this week, but is much better.
