SOME OMAHA VISITORS

That Omaha is fast becoming a Mecca for our people from all sections, is shown by the number of visitors constantly coming and going. They come in such numbers that it is difficult to chronicle their entrances and exits. Three recent visitors who are men of affairs were A. G. W. Sango, a prominent attorney, educator and business man of Muskogee, Okla.; W. W. Jones, a prominent and wide-awake real estate and insurance man of Fort Scott, Ark., and Mr. J. F. Johnson, special field representative of the Mm. C. J. Walker Manufacturing company of Indianapolis. All three of these gentlemen, two of whom were callers at The Monitor office, expressed themselves as being most favorably impressed with Omaha.

Mr. Johnson, who is a splendid type of the keen, alert business man, was full of the splendid prospects before his rapidly growing firm, which is now one of the two establishments conducted solely by the race, doing over $1,000,000 worth of business annually among Negroes alone. Mr. Johnson says the Walker Manufacturing company is now working night and day at full capacity and expects to triple its enormous business within the next two years.

WANTED—At once, five hundred persons to pass judgment upon the coffee and meals served by Marsh & Smith, 2709 West Q St., So. Side.

Rev. J. A. Broadnax will leave next Tuesday for Kansas City, Kas., to attend the annual conference of the A. M. E. church. He will visit in Topeka, Junction City and Manhattan, Kas., before returning home.

ARMOURS OMAHA AND ST. LOUIS TEAMS PLAY SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

Fans who enjoy a good ball game will get a run for their money at Rourke park Saturday and Sunday afternoon, when the Omaha team will cross bats with the live wires from St. Louis in the closing elimination series. The Armour teams of Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha have been putting across some live games. Interest centers in the game between Omaha and St. Louis because they are counted strong aggregations. Last Sunday Chicago defeated St. Louis and Omaha Kansas City. Interest therefore is keen to see what Omaha can do with St. Louis. Local rooters vow that the Nebraskans will show the Missourians what real ball playing is.

The St. Louis boys come up Saturday morning for the game in the afternoon; at night a banquet is to be served by the Armours at the Loyal hotel and Sunday they'll play a doubleheader.

Mr. Frank L. Deleware, manager, desires to express for the Armours their grateful thanks and appreciation of the liberal patronage given them by the public. They want everybody to come out and enjoy the closing series and festivities.

PHI DELTA NOTES

The Phi Delta Girls went on a hike to Elmwood park Sunday morning and enjoyed breakfast there.

The Pleasant Hour club has selected the following officers for the ensuing year: Dr. Craig Morris, president; Dr. J. H. Hutten, vice president; Harry Buford, secretary and treasurer.
