

Among the Churches

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH NEWS

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor.

The Sunday services as usual were carried out with a good deal of religious fervor. Two very excellent sermons were delivered by the pastor.

There were several persons added to the church. The collection for Sunday was $149.48.

The sick of the church are Mesdames Rayford, Cropp, 2908 Franklin street, and Mrs. Hubbard; also Mr. Chas. Hopkins, Lord Lister hospital; also Mrs. Mitchell, 2211 Grace street.

The visitors that worshiped in our pews were Mesdames Armstrong, W. C. C. Worker, Williams, Memphis, Tenn.; Mesdames Marshall, Excelsior Springs; Dale, St. Joseph; Works, Wichita, Kas.; Perkins, Junction City, Kas.; Townsend, Leavenworth, Kas.; Williams, Kansas City, Kas.; Tyler, Cherryville, Kas., and Dr. Davis, Waterloo, Kas. The W. W. club entertained Wednesday at a very unique lawn party. A delightful time was spent by all attending.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Thomas A. Taggart, Pastor

Rev. Thomas A. Taggart, who spent two weeks touring after his trip to the convention, visited New York, Atlantic City and Washington, D. C. He will be at his post on Sunday, September 21. Members and friends will be very glad and are anxiously waiting for his return to Bethel Baptist church.

Mrs. Marie Diman entertained the mission circle and every one enjoyed a treat.

The sick of the church are all improving.

Mrs. Mary Brown died Saturday after an illness of one hour at her home, rear of Q and 28 streets. Mrs. Brown was a faithful member of Bethel Baptist church, and leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. The funeral took place on Monday evening. Rev. Harris officiated.

The United Burial association met Monday evening with a host of new members anxiously waiting to join, while dispensation is on. The association meets at Bethel Baptist church hall. Join now.

CHURCH OF ST PHILIP THE DEACON

Sunday, September 4th, Ethel Margaret Dorothy, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Price Terrell, was baptized. The sponsors were Dr. Craig Morris and Miss Dorothy Williams.

Last Sunday Andrew Gerald, son of the late Andrew T. and Lola Thompson Summitt, was baptized at the 11 o'clock service, the sponsors being Mr. Thomas Reese and Mrs. Silas Johnson. An interesting feature about this baptism was the fact that the grandmother, Mrs. Grant Thompson, and the mother Lola Thompson, both recently deceased, were baptized in this same font, by the same priest, and that Thomas Reese, who many years ago was godfather for Lola, holds the same relationship to her little son. Fr. Williams called attention to this rather unusual circumstance.

The Sunday school is growing steadily and the morning congregations are well attended. The hours of service are 7:30, 10 and 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Public cordially welcomed to all services.

SIoux CITY NOTES

The mortgage burning will take place Thursday evening at 8 p. m. at the Malone A. M. E. church, at which time the final drive over the top will be made to pay our pastor's salary.

Professor Lawrence C. Jones and wife of Pineywoods country school at Braxton, Miss., are spending the week here in the interest of the school. They are the guests of Mrs. J. D. Anthony of Greenville.

On Saturday, September 6 a girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Roundtree, 616 Sioux street. Mother and daughter doing nicely.

H. J. Parker of Riverside had H. J. Jr. out to church Sunday. For a seven weeks' old youngster H. J. Jr. is a world beater. Brother Parker says he is going to consecrate him to the A. M. E. ministry.

Dr. J. W. Norris reports a land office business at his bath parlors in the Hotel Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill are now housekeeping at 15 W. 5th street.

Mrs. J. W. Norris is able to be around the house again, after being ill for some time.

Mr. Edward Askew contemplates spending the winter in California.

Mrs. Mansfield Askew is again able to occupy her old position as chorister at Malone A. M. E. church, after a slight illness.

Rev. P. M. Lewis will carry to conference which convenes in Chicago, September 24, the best report ever carried out of Sioux City in all departments of the church since its organization. The people are one in asking for his return. Rev. Lewis is truly a "Cedar of Lebanon" in the A. M. E. connection. Men of his type are rare and growing fewer every day. For some cause these younger ministers fail to deliver the goods.

Mrs. J. Shore's daughter, a nurse in Provident hospital Chicago, is spending her vacation the guest of her mother.

Mr. John Shores returned Saturday from Norfolk, Neb.

In spite of the fact that Sunday was a rainy, cloudy day, $48.85 was laid on the table at Malone A. M. E. to pay on the pastor's salary.

GARY, INDIANA, NOTES

Miss Mattie Beasley of the Poro college, St. Louis, Mo., is visiting her brother, Mr. J. Beasley.

Mr. W. Green left Sunday for Western university.

The Neighborhood club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Perry, Friday evening. Mrs. C. C. Johnson of Des Moines, and Miss Beasley of St. Louis, were the out of town guests.

The Rev. C. Hawkins and wife of the First Baptist church, left Monday to attend the W. B. C. at Newark, N. J.

Miss Grace Nickels is leaving this week to attend Wilberforce university.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry entertained at dinner Sunday, complimentary to Miss Beasley of St. Louis. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. Cornelia Hill of Evanston, Ill. was in Gary Sunday on business.

Mrs. C. C. Johnson and Mrs. Lillian Perry entertained at a matinee party in honor of Miss Hill and Miss Beasley. The line consisted of six. At a late hour the guests were served light refreshments at the Majestic Drug store.

Lincoln Department

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Cheyenne, Wyo., are visiting their sister, Mrs. Ada Ashford and family here.

Mr. Solomon Nelson celebrated his 26th birthday by giving a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Williams last Tuesday night. Quite a few of his friends responded to invitations.

Rev. M. P. Mack of Kansas City, Kas., filled the pulpit at Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sunday. Rev. Mack is remembered as one of the organizers of Mt. Zion Baptist church in 1881, and though elderly, is a very good speaker and instructor of the gospel. Rev. Mr. Mack named over a number of old settlers who were here at the time he was formerly here, but found all were gone, with the exception of Mrs. Delia Alexander, Major Moore and Andrew Nettles, and that he was very glad to meet them again, trusting that all were anchored in Christ Jesus. I am proud to see Mt. Zion still traveling toward the kingdom.

Rev. J. L. Payne will hold his farewell services next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Payne and Mrs. Payne leave for annual conference at Kansas City, Kas., the following week.

Mrs. J. Sherman Jones, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson, left for her home in Chicago last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Williams entertained the Utopian club last Thursday night. The club is making progress.

The Woman's Davis club has resumed their meetings and promises to do great things.

The N. A. A. C. P. held a rousing meeting in the A. M. E. church Monday night, and matters of vital importance were discussed. Another meeting is called for next Monday night.

Dr. E. E. Graves and Mrs. Graves will leave for Chicago the first of October. Dr. Graves will enter the Chicago Dental college to finish his course, that he may receive his diploma and be eligible to practice dentistry anywhere.

Herman L. Hale has been arrested and arraigned, complaint filed against him as having been implicated in the recent robbery at the Rock Island depot. We hope he will be proven guiltless. His bond was fixed at $1,500.

Readers of The Monitor may find extra copies at the Dunbar cafe, 240 North 10th street, each week.

LA GRANGE, TEXAS

Mrs. Emma Mosley has opened a cafe on the north side of the public square, and Mr. Henry Franks still holds forth on the south side. Three cafes should furnish good accommodation for the visitors and citizens of our town.

Rev. J. H. Napier is in Industry, assisting Rev. McKinney in a revival this week.

Last Tuesday night, September 2, at St. Paul A. M. E. church here Miss Lilitia A. Jarmon and Rev. F. F. Washington were married, Rev. I. D. Coffee officiating.

Mrs. Mabel Schermack and her two children, Mildred and Loris, are spending a few days visiting relatives in Smithville.

The La Grange city schools open Monday, September 8. Prof. G. A. Randolph, Mrs. L. E. Moore and Miss Juanita Sawner are the teachers.

A great many of our townsmen are leaving for the cottonfields at Elgin and other points.

Drs. Young and Slaughter, Houston, and relatives from Sealy and Weimar saw the Washington-Jarmon marriage.

Rev. J. W. Napier conducted regular services at St. James M. E. church Sunday.

Prof. W. L. Davis, Houston, manager for Western Star passed through the city last Thursday, en route to the Baptist national convention at Newark, N. J.

Our sick: H. L. Vincent, Mmes. Julia King and Pollie Smith.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Wm. Rose at 1303 North Fifth avenue wishes to thank her many friends who remembered her so nicely while she was in the hospital for the beautiful flowers and those that contributed in any way.

Council Bluffs

Mrs. Israel Bell Jones of Kansas City was the guest of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Besse, 1311 Sixth avenue. Miss Manilla Jewett from St. Paul, Minn., was also the guest of Mrs. H. V. Besse and her sister, Mrs. Farklins. Miss Jewett was on her way to Lincoln, Neb., to take up her school work after spending a few days in the city of Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Alice Davis, 2004 Seventh avenue, left the city last night for Billings, Mont., to visit her sister, who is not expected to live.

Brother R. V. Robinson, 2425 Fifth avenue, seems to be about the same.

Mrs. Stopp of Chicago was the guest of Mrs. P. J. Richardson and daughter, Ethel, 808 Fourteenth avenue, for a few days last week.

Mrs. Gertrude B. Rhonenee and little son, Charles, left last night over the I. C. railroad for Chicago where the Missionary meeting will be held this week. All ministers' wives are to meet a few days before the Annual Conference, September 24 to 28.

Both churches reported good services all day Sunday.

Rev. M. R. Rhonenee will leave

Tuesday night, the 23rd, for Chicago for the Conference. He will preach his farewell sermon Sunday night, September 21, 1919. Subject, "When Times Go Well With You, Remember Me." We want to say that Bethel will send in one of the best reports ever known in the history of the church.

Odd Fellow lodge, Sunshine, will meet at A. M. E. church, as the hall will be used for the closing of the Conference year, and all will go from the church to the hall, 18 Pearl street, Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People met at the Masonic hall with the president, Mr. W. C. Carter, in the chair, and had a wonderful meeting. The meetings are getting better and better as we go along the way. The way looks bright. We are asking every one in the city to come out and join us in the good work. We are looking forward for big things.

Mrs. A. C. Stewart and daughter, Hazel, and Mrs. W. C. Carter and others are going to Chicago, Ill., to visit the Annual Conference of the A. M. E. church, of which they are members.

The Rev. J. Costello and his good people will be at the Bethel A. M. E. church Sunday, September 21, at 3 p. m. Mr. Costello will preach.

The Rev. C. Johnson preached to a well filled house Wednesday night in Council Bluffs. He preached a soul stirring sermon, and everybody enjoyed it.

Chas. W. Madden, the district steward, and the pastor, Rev. M. Rhonenee, will leave for Chicago the night of the 23rd.
