AMERICAN LEGION TO STAGE BOXING SHOW
 John Tholmer, Camp Funston Boxing Instructor, to Meet Art Davis, the "Omaha Long Boy," in Six-Round Bout Friday Night.
 The Roosevelt post of the American Legion, local Colored branch, has started a membership drive by which they hope to enroll every Colored service man in Douglas county within the next ten days.
 On Friday evening, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, at their clubrooms, Twenty-fourth and Burdette streets, a special program will be rendered in connection with the meeting.
 Several events are on the card, the main one of which will be the heavy-weight mill between John Tholmer, who recently came here from Camp Funston, where he was in charge of the physical training of the Colored troops, and Art Davis. Mr. Tholmer has had wide experience in connection with the boxing game. For over twelve years he was actively engaged in pugilism as a professional. Still a young man and physically sound he can yet give a good account of himself.
 "Long Boy," his opponent, is well known around these parts, having done quite a deal of boxing here and in Missouri. He was a member of the 372d regiment of the Ninety-third division.
 During the absence of the president Mr. M. F. Singleton presided. After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. J. H. Moss, and the reports of the committees, City Commissioner Ringer spoke to the association. His remarks called forth varied and spirited remarks from those present, the discussion hinging on the shooting of Eugene Scott and the dismissal of the police officers involved. Money was paid in on the defense fund.
 Following remarks by a representative of the Salvation Army, a committee was to be named by the secretary for co-operation with this work.
 The association adjourned to meet next Sunday afternoon at Pilgrim Rest Baptist church.

This affair, which will include several preliminaries, is free, the only requirement being that one be a service man.
 Your American Legion button is your admission ticket.
N. A. A. C. P. MEETS AT GROVE M. E. CHURCH
 The meeting of the branch, N. A. A. C. P., Sunday afternoon was a well attended one. The president, Rev. John Albert Williams, was compelled to be absent, being one of the committee taking part in the enthronement of the Rt. Rev. Ernest V. Shayler, new Episcopal bishop of Nebraska, at Trinity cathedral Sunday.
