Mrs. Maria Jackson, an old resident of Omaha, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mae Stewart, 3615 Manderson streets, Sunday, November 2. The funeral services were held from Zion Baptist church Friday afternoon, November 7. Interment at Forest Lawn, Dr. W. F. Botts officiating.

A chance for the kiddies to earn a prize. Read Monitor Mother Goose offer on page six.

Mrs. William Lawson left Saturday for St. Joseph, Mo., where she will join her daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, who has been visiting relatives there. Before returning home they will visit relatives in Kansas City.

Have you joined the N. A. A. C. P. yet? Why not?

Miss Edna Bosler, 2504 Lake street, has returned from a delightful two weeks' visit among friends in St. Joseph, Excelsior Springs and Kansas City, Mo.

First class rooming house, neatly furnished rooms. Mrs. Georgia Tapps, 207 South 13th street. Tyler 4782.

Mrs. L. B. Bolten of Bedford, Ia., arrived in the city last Friday to visit relatives and friends. She is en route to Denver, where she will join her husband and spend the winter.

Poro hair culturist, scientific scalp treatment. Mrs. Georgia Tapps, 207 South 13th street. Tyler 4782.

Mrs. Isaac Bailey has returned to the city greatly improved after a two months' visit in the southland. Seargent was a little peeved at the extra expense Mrs. Bailey incurred in buying a new trunk in which to ship walnuts, pecans and sweet potatoes from her old home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith entertained about forty young people Friday, November 7, in honor of the 19th birthday anniversary of their son, Henry C. Smith, and nephew, James F. Lewis. The house was beautifully decorated and the evening was spent in dancing. A delicious luncheon was served at 11 o'clock, the main feature of which was the cutting of the large birthday cake. The guests departed at midnight after having spent a delightful evening.

Are you a member of the N. A. A. C. P.? If not, why not?

LaKeene system of straightening kinky hair is the culmination of 30 years of scientific research. The most wonderful process known.

For big bargains and safe investments see Fred C. Williams, Douglas 3224.

The N. W. C. A. Sewing Bee met on November 5 at the home of Mrs. Nat Hunter. Quite a few ladies were present. Mrs. Henry Robert received first prize, and Mrs. Anna Bowler second, for the most sewing done. At 5 p. m. Mrs. Hunter served a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held November 19 at the home of Mrs. James Jewell, 2911 Lake street.

Attorney James A. Spears of Buxton, Ia., passed through the city Tuesday, and was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Ora King. He was en route to Wichita, Kan., where he goes to become the junior member of a law firm.

LOCAL BRANCH N. A. A. C. P.
ELECTS PRESIDENT

On last Sunday afternoon at Grove M. E. church at 4:30 p. m. the branch met for the election of officers. Although five hundred members were present the vote cast for president was very small, being only 192. The balance of the officers will be elected next Sunday. The meeting is called for Grove M. E. church at the regular hour.

The Rev. John Albert Williams, who has been president for the past year during whose administration the association has grown from a handful of members to a membership of a thousand, Mrs. Jessie Hale Moss, who has served the association very efficiently as secretary during the past year, our popular band master, Mr. Dan Desdunes, who declined to run, and Mr. Elder Scott, who has been very active in association affairs, were the nominees for president.

Mrs. Jessie Hale Moss was elected president for the ensuing year.

Mr. Dan Desdunes and Mr. William Rayford acted as tellers. Mr. Henry Black and the Rev. W. C. Williams checked the count.

One of the delegates representing Nebraska at the national convention of the American Legion which convenes in Minneapolis this week, is Rufus Long, member of the Roosevelt Post No. 30. Mr. Long, who was also a delegate to the state convention which met in Omaha recently, left for Minneapolis last Sunday.

Roosevelt Post No. 30, which is sending Mr. Long, announces that after January they will take over the War Camp Community work and will have their location at Columbia hall, Twenty-fourth and Lake streets.

A PROGRESSIVE STORE.

A New Club to be Formed Next Monday.

All employes of Phillip's department store will meet next Monday, November 17, to formulate and start first action on a club for employes of this "Omaha's Fast Growing Store."

The club will be for members of store only, for advancement of selling ideas, social programs, outside entertainment, also for sick benefits for members. The club as planned will not only have all the features of existing organizations of this kind, but will have many new novel features that will be original with Phillip's Progress Club.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and sympathy shown at the death of our mother and sister, Mrs. Maria Jackson. Also for the beautiful floral offerings given. Please accept our sincere thanks.
MRS. MAE STEWART.
MRS. LAURA EVANS.

All of Omaha's citizens will support its one charitable possession.

Let the Charity Ball be the affair of the season.

RACE STENOGRAPHER IN PENNSYLVANIA COURT OF APPEALS

Pittsburg, Va.—The appointment of John W. Rosemond to the position of official court stenographer in common pleas court of Allegheny county by the judges recently is certainly most gratifying. The appointment is a tribute to Mr. Rosemond's ability. It is said the salary is $160 per month.

As far as we know at present Mr. Rosemond is the only Negro in the United States holding a similar position.

It is not how much you earn, but how much you save which counts.
