BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Rev. T. A. Taggart, Pastor.

In spite of the inclement weather the services at Bethel were well attended last Sunday. Two were added to the membership of the church.

Next Sunday morning the pulpit will be filled by Bro. Davis, and in the evening the pastor will preach from the text, "He That Dances Must Pay the Fiddler."

The B. Y. C. U. on November 30 are planning to carry out the program as arranged by the National Board of the Union at Nashville, Tenn. The proceeds will be turned over to the board to defray national expenses.

The ladies and friends of Bethel gave a surprise party in honor of Rev. Taggart Monday night, November 10. Each one present brought a pound, which was greatly appreciated by the pastor.

The Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. Lillian Arvin, on South Twenty-fourth street last week and was highly entertained.

ZION BAPTIST NOTES.

W. F. Botts, Pastor.

To the few who braved the storm last Sunday morning and attended services, the pastor proved that it does not always take a large audience to inspire the speaker. The sermon Sunday night was also a masterpiece.

On Monday, November 10, Rev. H. B. Young of Fayette, Mo., arrived in the city to assist the pastor in a ten-day revival service. Come out and hear this noted divine.

Don't forget the Sunday School and B. Y. C. U. and let each one remember their respective auxiliaries.

The Mission Circle met last week with Mrs. Anna Tubbs, 3110 Seward street. The annual election of officers was held with the following result: President, Mrs. Ada Woodson; vice-president, Mrs. Sewell; secretary, Mrs. R. Harrold; assistant secretary, Mrs. V. Turner; treasurer, Mrs. E. Pipes; chaplain, Mrs. A. Tubbs; editor, Mrs. M. Moore. Installation of officers at the meeting this week at the residence of Mrs. R. Harrold, 1540 Willis avenue.

The sick of the church are improving at their respective homes.

Mrs. J. F. Gratto of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Eva Palmer of Kansas City, Mo., were visitors at service last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Estelle Craig, president of the "Wide Awake 24," and her sister, Mrs. M. Stone, have returned from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Kansas City, Kan.

Join the crowds and receive the hearty welcome that awaits you at this church at all times.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. W. C. Williams, Pastor.

Sunday services were well attended. The evening hour was devoted to services of the American Legion. A very able address was delivered by Dr. Peebles concerning the aim and object of this organization and why every returned Negro soldier or sailor should belong to the Roosevelt Post. The choir rendered several selections in keeping with the topic of the evening.

The sick of the church are: Mesdames Youston, Twenty-first and Paul streets; Maggie Tillet, Twenty-sixth and Michigan avenue, and J. H. Mitchell, Twenty-second and Grace streets. The Phyllis Wheatley Missionary society will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30. A very interesting program will be the leading feature at this meeting. The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Thursday afternoon to hold election of officers.

The Christian Endeavor which meets each Sunday at 7:30 o'clock has started a membership drive. They would like for all persons who are interested in Biblical discussion to come out and join, and all who are not interested come out and get interested, and then they will surely join. A junior choir will be organized Friday to render music at this service.

ALLEN CHAPEL NOTES.

Rev. J. A. Broadnax left Sunday night for Wichita, Kan.

On account of the heavy rain Sunday services were very poorly attended.

The services held by the Society of Sons and Daughters of Jerusalem were well attended and very inspiring. Collection, $15.00. Collection for the church, $20.00.

Many of the members of Allen

Chapel will attend quarterly meeting in Council Bluffs Sunday, the 23d. Allen Chapel quarterly meeting will be held on the 23d. Dr. Williams will preach the afternoon services.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.

In spite of the heavy rain a good sized crowd listened to the pastor last Sunday morning, and in the evening Rev. Roundtree preached. Both sermons were enjoyed by all.

The ladies of the various auxiliaries met at the church on Sunday afternoon and were organized, and will meet the second Sunday in each month. Name will be given later.

The Swastika Art club met at the home of Mrs. Mary Williams last week. Plans were discussed for the Thanksgiving decoration of the church.

ST. PHILIP THE DEACON NOTES.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Philip church will give a Kensington tea at the residence of Mrs. L. E. Britt on Thursday, November 20, from two to six. Prizes will be given for the best work.

ATCHISON, KANSAS.

We wish to say the paper is growing more interesting each number.

A number of young people surprised Mr. and Mrs. E. Handy at their beautiful home last Monday evening. After having an enjoyable time, refreshments which the guests brought with them were served.

Mrs. Beatrice Ewing after a long illness passed away Thursday evening. She leaves many friends to mourn her death.

The death of Mrs. America Robinson was very sudden and unexpected.

Mrs. Lina Bowen of Kansas City visited Atchison friends last week. She was en route to St. Joseph.

Mrs. Mae Bayliss of Kansas City is expected in the city this week to visit at the home of her husband's parents. Mrs. Blanche Kerford of Chicago is visiting her mother, Mrs. Edwards.

Mrs. Vergil Leech, who has been in service, has returned home. His old friends are glad to welcome him back. Mrs. Giles of Bedford, S. D., is the guest of Mrs. Robert Peterson.

Mr. Willard Wilson accompanied the Underwood family to Netawa for the winter.

The wedding of Miss Leona Jane Hamilton and Mr. Floyd B. Kelley, which took place at Weston, was very simple yet beautiful. The church was decorated in blue and white and a profusion of potted plants was seen everywhere. Promptly at 8 o'clock as Miss Chloe Pyles played the wedding march, four young ladies entered the church carrying blue and white streamers, which formed an aisle, through which the bridal party passed. The bride was very becomingly attired in white crepe de chine trimmed in beads, and carried a bouquet of roses. They received many useful and beautiful presents.

Last Sunday being Quarterly meeting, Rev. A. C. Teuel was here and conducted the services.

Wedding bells will ring during the holidays for two of Atchison's school teachers.

LA GRANGE, TEXAS.

Saturday was pay day for the colored teachers of Fayette county, consequently a good many bright faces were seen on the streets.

We have had fair weather for about two weeks and farmers are harvesting on a very extensive scale. Cotton, corn, hay, potatoes and foodstuffs generally, receive attention.

Rev. S. J. Vick and Rev. G. A. Dridale were pleasant guests in our city last week.

Rev. S. A. Tillman is back from the called session of La Grange Association of District Executive Board meeting at Giddings last week, where he refused the offer of the position of district evangelist at $100 per month. Rev. J. G. Grant, treasurer, also attended the board meeting.

Mr. Sam McKenzie is having some additions made to his house.

Trustees of Ebenezer Baptist church had some repairs made on the parsonage last week.

A goodly number of persons representing all churches were present by invitation and participated in celebrating the 49th birthday of Rev. J. H. Napier, P. E. of St. James M. E. church, last Friday night. Remarks were made by Rev. I. D. Coffee, Prof. G. A. Randolph and ye agent.

Mrs. Hallie Johnson has returned from Eagle Lake, where she made a short visit to relatives.

Miss Irene Brown left last Sunday for Austin where she contemplates making her future home.

Miss Effie Smith of Williams Creek district school, having made satisfactory examination, is attending high schools here.

Rev. Napier preached two splendid sermons last Sunday to good crowds.

Amount raised, $35. Rev. S. A. Tillman preached at Eagle Lake and Rev. I. D. Coffee at Bethlehem last Sunday.

Our sick: Mrs. Polly Smith. Mrs. Clementine Riley and Master Allan Fields are home again from an extended trip to Hempstead, Houston and Galveston.

FREMONT, NEB., NOTES.

Rev. Stapleton was in the city last Sunday and preached two splendid sermons. While here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Berry.

Mrs. Al Williams, who has been ill for some time, has recovered.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Thomas, a ten-pound boy, on November 9.

Quarterly meeting will be observed here Wednesday, November 19.

Mrs. Charles Brannon, who recently underwent an operation at one of the hospitals in Omaha, is doing nicely. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. John Bradford has recently purchased a new Mitchell automobile.

Mr. Charles Brannon has spent the last two Sundays in Omaha, visiting with his wife who is confined in the hospital.

COUNCIL BLUFFS NOTES.

Mr. Robert McGee and Miss Bessie Giles are confined to the hospital.

Mr. Joe Tanahill of Chicago, Ill., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Besse for a few days.

Mr. Henry Simms of Mason City, Ia., was in the city Sunday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Amelia January, who died in Hutchinson, Kan., and was brought to Council Bluffs. Rev. January accompanied the remains of his wife here.

Mrs. Ellen Rodriguez and sister, Mrs. Lizzie Tanahill, left Monday evening for St. Paul, Minn., having been called here by the death of their brother, Mr. Anderson Nealy.

R. V. Robinson, who has been ill, is much improved. He lives at 2425 5th avenue.

Mr. Afford Berry is confined to his home on account of sickness.

The first quarterly meeting will be held at the Bethel A. M. E. church on Sunday, November 16, conducted by Rev. Stovall D. D. Rev. J. A. Broadnax will preach at the afternoon service, and Rev. W. C. Williams of St. John's A. M. E. church, Omaha, will preach Monday evening at 7:30.
